

Arlington Advocate

ROBBINS LIBRARY
ARLINGTON MASS

Vol. LXXVII No. 3

ARLINGTON, MASS., THURSDAY, JANUARY 13, 1948

Single Copy Five Cents

Yearly $2.50

19 Candidates In Field for Town Jobs

Seventeen Have Taken Out Papers within Last Few Days — Golden Faced by Two Opponents — Three Running for Public Works Position.

The rush of candidates for the various town jobs to be filled at the annual March election is on. Seventeen persons have taken out papers within the last few days, making a total of 19 running for the jobs. James J. Golden, who was just recently appointed Town Clerk by the Board of Selectmen to succeed the late Earl A. Ryder, has announced his candidacy to succeed himself, and George A. Harris' papers for the Board of Selectmen have been filed and approved last week.

Mr. Golden's opponents for the office of Town Clerk are, so far, Francis J. Higgins, a member of the School Committee and an insurance counselor, and Edward J. Swadkins of 196 Broadway, a storekeeper with the Public Works Department.

Thomas J. O'Neill, present head of the Public Works Department, is running for re-election. His opponents are Thomas R. Rawson, Jr., of 54 Hutchinson road, a well known contractor, and Cornelius Brosnan, a fuel oil dealer.

Running for assessor is William O. Hauser, and he has no opponents so far. Candidates for the School Committee are Mrs. Albert Porteus, James J. Bevins, now a member; Carl F. Allen, Francis W. Callahan and Mrs. Therese N. Turner, up for re-election. Candidates for the Planning Board are Charles J. Daley, Jr., Herbert M. Dutcher and John J. Adamian. Edward D. Buckley is running for the Park Commission, and for the Board of Health the candidate is John S. Crosby. The sole candidate for library trustee is Frederick D. Gynn of 91 Valentine road.

The deadline for filing papers is January 31 at 5 p. m.

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE DESIGNATES ALL-IMPORTANT 5-MAN GROUP

Last night the Arlington Citizens' Committee met at the Old Town Hall, over 200 strong, and named its all-important five-man Committee on Qualifications. Three were appointed by Chairman John Greim with the approval of the Directors. They are Harold Anderson, Donald F. Bresnan and Roscoe O. Elliott.

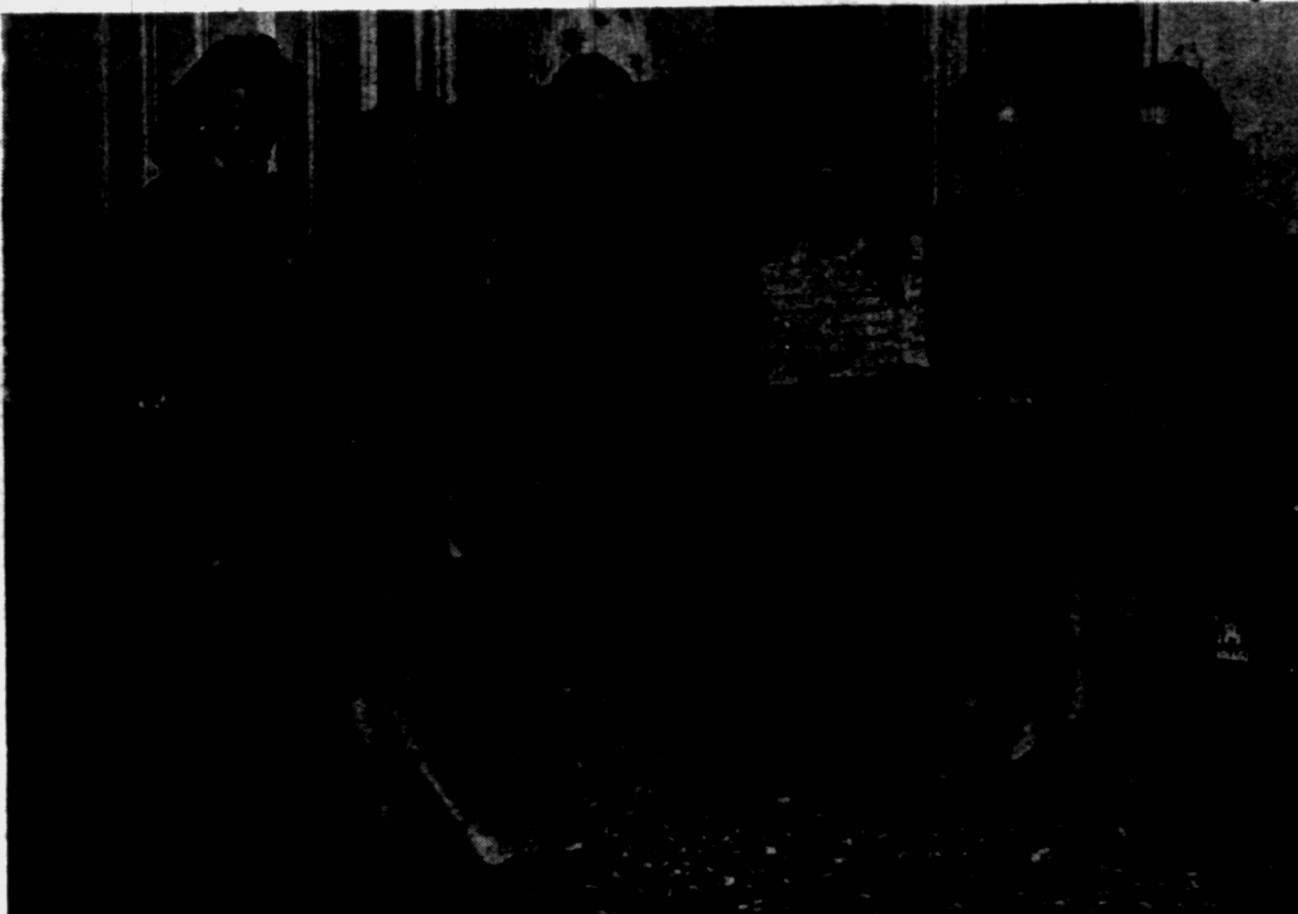

The remaining two positions were filled after a spirited election. William B. Houser, nominated by Rodney D. Bates, and John Mulcahy, nominated by Philip Pellegrini, won by comfortable margins.

Chairman Greim publicly commended the Advocate for its recent editorials on Town Meeting Member attendance and its part in the current drive to publicize and encourage better representation on the town meeting floor.

The Committee on Qualifications, it was pointed out, has a tremendous task ahead. Many excellent candidates for the various offices are running and the ultimate choice for endorsement will be hard.

Also, the mechanics of screening all the candidates for Town Meeting Member and endorsing those selected, which is the avowed intention of the Citizens' Committee, is close to a monumental job.

If last year's election is any criterion, the endorsement by the committee might prove to be a powerful factor in the March elections. In the past the Committee usually has given a vote of confidence to the findings of the Committee on Qualifications. Thus, the selections made by Messrs. Anderson, Houser, Bresnan, Elliott and Mulcahy will be watched with interest by those in political circles.

The engaged girls are (left to right): Sally Spofford, Susan MacCallum, Ruth Olive, Lillian Standring, Edith Jones, Verna Gott and Dorothy Crooker.

Bevy of Seven Young Brides-to-be Are Entertained by Welcome Wagon Hostess

As Welcome Wagon Hostess in Arlington, Mrs. James Boyd entertained a bevy of Arlington's recently engaged young ladies at her home, 21 Ashland street, last Thursday evening. The guests of honor were the Misses Sally Spofford, Susan MacCallum, Ruth Olive, Lillian Standring, Edith Jones, Verna Gott, and Dorothy Crooker. Other guests were Mrs. William R. Bennett and Mrs. Edward W. Center.

The decorations included pink and blue streamers, and a fancy gift box, from which the hostess presented Welcome Wagon gifts to each future bride, adding a personal gift of her own to each one. All the guests received corsages, the engaged girls, rose carnations; other guests, yellow daffodils. Refreshments were served, and pictures taken of the charming parties by Charles Kierstead of Wollaston avenue.

St. John's Re-Elects Church's Officers

The annual meeting of St. John's Episcopal Church was held on Monday evening, January 10, with the rector, the Rev. Halsey I. Andrews, presiding. He gave a resume of the work of the Parish during the past year and the reports of the Parish Treasurer and of all organizations were in printed form, and distributed to those present. Following the business meeting, an entertainment and light refreshments were enjoyed.

The following were re-elected to the offices of the Parish: Senior Warden, Arthur O. Yeames; Junior Warden, J. Millard Washburn, Jr.; Clerk, Chester J. Ginder; Treasurer, Edward A. Richards; Asst. Treasurer, Mrs. Alanson D. Yeaton; Auditor, Felix Cutler; Vestryman for three years, Robert H. Pike, Frank W.

Nurse to Royal Baby is Related To Local Resident

(Exclusive to The Advocate)

The first assistant nurse to young Prince Charles of England is a relative by marriage of Mrs. Roy Kelly of 16 West Court terrace. The 22-year-old nurse to the royal baby is Miss Mabel Anderson of Elgin, Scotland, whose sister is the wife of Mrs. Kelly's brother, Charles Kinnard, also of Elgin. Miss Anderson was chosen by Queen Elizabeth and Princess Elizabeth from among hundreds of applicants. She was previously a nurse with an American family in England.

Sorrow and George P. Severance (other members of the Vestry—terms expiring in 1950 and 1951) are Richard E. Ambrose, Howard R. Ensor, William J. Millard and Ralph G. Pepton. Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, Arthur O. Yeames, J. Milton Washburn, Jr., and Edward A. Richards—alternate, John H. Campbell; Delegates to the Archdiocese of Lowell, Floyd A. Zinck, Louis T. Phelps and Alanson D. Yeaton.

Higgins, Town Clerk Candidate, Active In Town Affairs

School Committeeman Francis J. Higgins this week formally announced his candidacy for the office of Town Clerk. This is the office left vacant with the death of Earl A. Ryder, Town Clerk for many years. Mr. Higgins is married and the father of four children, three of whom attend the Arlington schools. He resides at 86 Marathon St. He received his higher education at Venard Prep. School and Venard College at Clarkson, Pa.

F. J. Higgins

and attended Boston University and Harvard School of Business Administration and Suffolk Law School.

For five years, Mr. Higgins was engaged as an Industrial Specialist for the War Department and served as head of the Records Department in Ordnance. He received special commendation from the Property Chief for the system of Records Keeping which he established and organized and was used in many of the war plants in New England. For the able manner in which he executed this task and the efficiency of the system, he received very favorable and high commendation from his superiors. He is presently engaged as an Insurance Counselor.

Currently a member of the School Committee to which he was elected two years ago, Mr. Higgins is also a Town Meeting member, director of the Monica Cotter Fund and a director of the Citizens' Committee.

Always active in town and civic affairs and youth movements, Mr. Higgins is a member of Parent-Teacher groups, athletic, civic, fraternal and patriotic associations and organizations throughout the town.

Many citizens of the town are enthusiastic about his candidacy and feel that he is more than well qualified to fill the office of Town Clerk and large committees are being formed in his behalf.

Mr. Higgins said "For two years I have served as a member of your School Committee and participated in the administration of the school department. In addition to the educational problems this includes a budget of nearly $1,500,000.00 as well as many personnel problems. My training and experience in the field of business has been of a Committee Weighing School Problem

Hall Points Out That Factors Being Considered at Junior High Center Are Small Enrollment and Convenience of Site.

League of Women Voters is Formed In Arlington

Mrs. Donald R. MacJannett, 208 Pleasant street, opened her home on Wednesday afternoon, January 12, at 3 p. m., for an organization meeting of an Arlington League of Women Voters. Forty enjoyed the tea which preceded the meeting, when Priscilla Barclay, visiting the hostess from England, and Mrs. Glenn E. Owens poured.

Mrs. Richard Bolt introduced Mrs. Arthur Whittemore of Hingham, a past president of the league, who presented a full picture of its purposes. Said she: "If democracy is to function well, it is absolutely essential that citizens be informed to become intelligently articulate." At the close of Mrs. Whittemore's discourse it was decided to form an Arlington branch. Mrs. Richard Bolt was elected temporary chairman; Mrs. Edwin R. Gilliland, Mrs. Gordon Thompson and Mrs. Donald Broughton were elected as the nominating committee to draw up a slate of officers to be presented for election at a future meeting.

Although a survey of the Junior High School Center has been in progress for some time, no definite action has been taken in the matter up to this time, Clifford R. Hall, superintendent of schools, told The Advocate today.

He said the school department was weighing two factors, namely the small present enrollment and the convenient location of the school for those pupils living in or near the center of the town.

Mr. Hall said that right now there is an enrollment of only 250 as compared with 500 at one time, although the seating capacity is 450. He said also that the department was considering various alternatives that have been suggested if it is decided to close the school and enroll the pupils there at the other junior high schools.

Among the uses to which the center school might be put would be as a maintenance department for the school system, thereby providing more room for the high school; central offices for the school department, junior high school industrial arts plus special classes for the physically handicapped, or be turned over to the town for veterans' quarters. It has also been suggested that in view of the fact that the last Town Meeting turned down an $85,000 additional appropriation for additions to Town Hall, the school might be used for various town departments.

The seating capacity at Junior High East is 715 and at Junior High West 800, yet at the former the enrollment is 378 at present and 605 at the latter.

It should be noted that the East and West have a combined capacity of 1515 pupils, while the final figure of the projection, i.e. 1954-55 is 1690 pupils. Or, to put it another way, these two junior highs could very well absorb the present enrollment of Center Junior if it were decided to close that school.

In the projection figures up to 1954-55 no consideration has been given to new housing, nor has the effect of new parochial schools been considered. Neither has any allowance been made for pupils brought in by new housing programs, if and when they are completed.

Massachusetts is one of 22 states which raises all the pheasants it liberates.

Reardon Heads Lt. Governor's Staff

John Francis Reardon, an attorney, of 181 Franklin street, has been appointed to head the State House Staff of Lt. Governor Sullivan. He was born in Boston and was a resident of Somerville for many years. Mr. Reardon is a graduate of Somerville High School, Boston College, Boston College Law School, and is a member of the Massachusetts Bar. He was a former instructor in the Somerville School System and was with the Federal Government in several positions, including The Home Owners Loan Corp., Post Office Department, Internal Revenue Service and Alcohol Tax Unit.

Mr. Reardon has been a resident of Arlington for the past eight years. He resides with his wife, Agnes, and their three children, John, James and Agnes, who attend St. Agnes' School. Mrs. Reardon is active in the Cub Scout movement in Arlington.

Lumbermens Mutual Casualty Co.
Federal Mutual Fire Insurance Co.
HENRY G. WILTON, Agent
673 Mass. Avenue Tel. AR 5-1800

Authorized RCA Sales and Service
Just Telephone
BOB WHITE
(Formerly Finley-White, Inc.)
TELEVISION SERVICE
RADIO On All Makes
For Service Ask for Bob White or Mrs. Bunker at ARLington 5-0713
16a MILL STREET

FOR TUITION
YOU ARE ENTITLED TO BANK CREDIT if you have dependable income from salary or other earnings, a satisfactory credit record, and the ability to make payments consistently.
For example:

Twelve Equal Amounts
You Need	It Costs You	Monthly Payments
$100	$8.72	$9.06
200	15.04	17.92
300	19.20	26.60
400	25.52	35.46
500	26.32	43.86

ARLINGTON OFFICE
HARVARD TRUST COMPANY
655 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Centre Appliance
INC.
ROSS LoPRESTI, Proprietor
FORMERLY KEN ATKINSON, INC.
General Electric R C A VICTOR
Appliances Television & Radio
Radio and Small Appliance Repairs
Convenient Budget Terms Arranged
452 Mass. Avenue AR 5-0920

FRANK J. HUGHES
PLUMBING and HEATING
Sanitary and Heating Engineer
Jobbing, Brass Piping, Stoves and Heaters Repaired
Res., 166 FRANKLIN ST., AR 5-2324 or 5-7850

BODY & FENDER WORK
Repairs on All Makes of Cars
Wheel Aligning and Balancing
Painting — Simonizing
Immediate Delivery
Tires, Tubes, Batteries, Seal Covers
Spot Lights, Fog Lights, etc.
Wholesale and Retail
ARLINGTON BUICK CO.
835 Massachusetts Ave. ARLington 5-5300

"I AIN'T VERY MUCH, BUT..."

★ In the play Green Pastures, the character Noah observed, "I ain't very much, but I've got." This is simple but eloquent reasoning.

The realization of responsibility to yourself and to others to be cheerful, sympathetic, and helpful is the basis of a sound personality. Ill and disgruntled people are a burden to all. Take good care of yourself. Do not forget that both your family physician and your pharmacist are on your side to help you stay well and happy. All you have to do is ask for their help. When ill, see your physician. We are fully equipped to fill your prescriptions and furnish the needed sickroom supplies.

SEARS and TIBBETTS
PROFESSIONAL PHARMACISTS
667 Massachusetts Ave. Tel. AR 5-1680

Arlington People Prefer
The COMMANDER
Cambridge's Leading Hotel
Across the Common from Harvard
A Popular Center for
Luncheons - Receptions - Weddings
Dances - Banquets - Bridge
Dining Room - Cocktail Lounge
Kirkland 7-4800

TELEVISION!
SEE THE NEW ZENITH NOW AT
AVERY'S
RADIO SERVICE
Does your radio fade just when you reach the important part of your favorite program? A few repairs can correct your radio troubles, have your radio checked right now.
So Don't Delay — Call Avery's Today!
AVERY'S
1203 MASS. AVE. TEL. AR 5-3445
Television Studio Open Friday Night and Other Nights by Appointment — Convenient Terms

HOTEL CONTINENTAL
"One of New England's Best Hotels"
Cambridge, Mass.
The perfect place for your Banquets, Bridge Luncheons, Dances, Wedding Receptions and Functions of all kinds.
Our Grand Ballroom, one of the largest and handsomest Ballrooms in New England, accommodates up to 750 people.
EXCELLENT FOOD AND SERVICE
Chauncey Depew Steele, Jr., General Manager
Tel. Kirkland 7-6100

BODY & FENDER WORK
Painting - Simonizing
Cullinane's
Auto Body
17 Mill Street
AR 5-0128-W

INCOME TAX RETURNS
STATE and FEDERAL Prepared and Filed by Accountant with 23 Years of Experience
Leo M. Murray
59 IROQUOIS ROAD
Tel. AR 5-2698
Call Day or Evening

Strong Reliable Companies
Stock or Mutual Insurance
J. Q. RUSH
Tel. ARL 6010
627 Mass. Ave.

FULL INFORMATION is AVAILABLE TO YOU about the adaptability of our home mortgage plans to your specific requirements.
There is always someone at this friendly bank well qualified to discuss and advise with you regarding your plans for buying or building a home or refinancing an existing mortgage.
There is no obligation in getting the complete facts and figures which you need for successful planning. Come in soon.
Phone ARLington 5-0011 or call at the Main Office

ARLINGTON Savings Bank
FIVE CENTS
MAIN OFFICE
626 Massachusetts Avenue
OTHER OFFICES
190 Massachusetts Avenue - East Arlington
1300 Massachusetts Avenue - Arlington Heights

SHOP YOUR EVERGOOD MASTER MARKET
FRANKLIN STREET AND BROADWAY
Open Friday Night 'til 9 P. M.
FREE PARKING IN REAR

Arlington Advocate

15 Prescott St. Tel. AR 5-7900 Arlington, Mass.
Established 1872. Published Every Thursday
Subscription $2.50

ARLINGTON ADVOCATE, INC.

Leonard D. Wood, Manager George F. Nolan, Editor
Helen Center, Society Editor, AR 5-8263

NATIONAL EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION

1949 Active Member

This publication assumes no financial responsibility for errors in advertisements, but will publish, without charge, a correction in the next issue, or republish any portion of the advertisement which is incorrect.
Entered at the Post Office in Arlington as Second-Class matter.

POLITICIANS VS. STATESMEN

Sometimes as we sit back to seriously consider the state of the union we are forced to wonder if it is as rosy and serene as pictured by Mr. Truman in his recent message to the Congress. And then as we begin to wonder if perhaps we have become too pessimistic we get a real jolt, along with millions of other Americans, as the President asks for a 42 billion budget, or, to be more precise, the exact sum of $44,095,000,000 (one becomes almost dizzy in contemplating these numerals) under the government bookkeeping procedure in use in previous years.

A discussion of this huge budget, the greatest for the country in our peace time history, is not in order at the moment. We shall have to wait until the experts have broken it down into its component parts—and justified it. But it is pertinent to remind our citizens—if they need a reminder—that this is the era of politicians rather than statesmen, an era that began some years ago and has continued, with some notable exceptions, unabated right up to the present moment and which is quite likely to continue for some more years.

That is why the country has suffered a very real loss in the retirement of such men as Secretary Marshall and Under Secretary Lovett, the former because of ill health and the latter because of political pressure. Both men are statesmen in the true sense of the term. As for Mr. Acheson, he is a man of culture who has had much experience in statesmanship, and he has the further distinction of having been forced out of the State Department by Mr. Roosevelt because he refused to be a "yes" man with the other New Dealers.

We believe that Mr. Acheson did not use good judgment in sponsoring Mr. Alger Hiss, but we are convinced that he is and always has been a loyal servant to his country.

And as we contemplate the array of politicians holding strategic positions as heads of committees, and their eagerness to grant petitions involving the expenditure of millions of dollars at the behest of pressure groups that take full credit for the election of Mr. Truman, we are appalled that the country has reached the stage where we are at the mercy of the type of men who ran the old political machines in New York, Boston, Chicago and Kansas City.

It is true that we have a few men of statesmanship quality in Washington, but unfortunately they are in the minority and they have been stripped of power. The real statesman knows little of the rough and tumble of politics, the wiles and double-talk of professional politicians, whose main objective is to get the votes rather than the welfare of the country as a whole. We can trust men of the statesmanship quality of Senators Taft, Saltonstall, Lodge, Vandenberg and a handful of others of both parties, but theirs are now voices in the wilderness.

Perhaps it will be better four years from now. Thus, the incurable optimist.

RULES ON PRESS FREEDOM

This is the heading that appeared over an Associated Press story in last Friday's New York Times concerning the action of the Public Safety Commissioner of the town of Bridgeton, N. J., who declared that he would "give out what news he deemed suitable for publication." The police blotter, it was revealed, had been closed to the press for several days on this official's orders.

He told reporters: "You could have had the news any time in the past week if you had asked for it. But you did not. All you asked for was the records, which I refused." He then went on to say it was a matter whether the commissioner scanned the reports and decided what should be released, or whether reporters scanned the police records and they or their editors decided what should be printed.

Of course this action is in the Soviet tradition and the newspaper editors of Bridgeton will probably fight the ruling, as they should. There is no excuse for this sort of thing at any time and in any place, to paraphrase a famous remark made by Calvin Coolidge.

SPRING?

Well, we must admit it feels that way, at least at the time this editorial page goes to press, which is Wednesday night. In fact we are now so certain that cold weather and snow has left the New England sector for points farther west that we have been expecting any day now to have some nice old lady call us to tell about the first robin on her lawn.

And when Chief of Police Bullock asked us yesterday (remember what a spring-like day it was?) to publish seven rules he had compiled for motorists in anticipation of bad driving this month and next, we exuded optimism, and while he did not quite share it, being native to these parts, he did say that it might be well to skip this week and hold the rules in abeyance—perhaps until next year.

William L. White, son of the late noted editor of the Emporia Gazette, in his latest book on the Russians, "Land of Milk and Honey" (Harcourt, Brace.), tells this one which should be read by all American Commies and their fellow travelers:

When Stalin and Trotsky were having their bitter argument over whether socialism could be built in one country, two peasants took the question to a holy man. Which was right, they asked, Stalin or Trotsky.

The holy man listened thoughtfully. Then he gave his verdict: "My children," he said, "in this dispute Stalin is right. Socialism can be built in one country. But—while they are doing this, it is much wiser to live in some other country."

"The Poet's Corner"

Keep the contributions coming and we'll keep printing them, always eager to uncover fresh and original talent.

"YOU MISTOOK THE FIRE"

You mistook the fire in my eyes
For the jealousy and pain
That you often caused deliberately
But can never cause again.

The truth, I'm sure, would have dismissed
All your smug elation,
If you'd known that you were witnessing
Your very own cremation.

William E. Mahoney, 17 Addison Street

ARLINGTON 5-1698

ARLINGTON 5-2186

JOHN E. McAVOY

Funeral Home

COMPLETE FUNERAL SERVICE

PERSONAL SUPERVISION

223 MASSACHUSETTS AVE.

ARLINGTON, MASS.

Arlington in Review

(Reprinted from the Files of the Arlington Advocate.)

IN 1874

75 Years Ago This Week

Our town clerk furnishes the following comparative figures:

	1872	1873
Births	102	118
Marriages	45	49
Deaths	66	70

It certainly cannot be laid to George Washington as having been the one who tested his little hatchet on the posts near the cemetery.

IN 1899

50 Years Ago This Week

The Caroline Islands will be the subject considered at the next regular meeting of the Ladies' Foreign Missionary Society, in the parlor of the Congregational Church, Monday afternoon, January 16.

At the annual meeting of the Universalist Ministers' Association of Boston and vicinity, held in Ballou Hall, Boston, Monday forenoon, Rev. Harry Fay Fisher of Arlington was chosen president of the association.

Thursday evening, Hose Company Number Three will have a social time at their home on the corner of Broadway and Franklin street, which will include a supper and a historical paper by Mr. George Y. Wellington.

IN 1924

25 Years Ago This Week

Rev. Matthew J. Flaherty, pastor of St. Agnes' Church, sailed from New York on Tuesday, in company with Archbishop Austin Dowling of St. Paul, Minn., on an official visit to Rome.

On Sunday, at his slightly home on Arlington Heights, Chief of Police Thomas O. D. Urquhart will entertain surviving members of his father's company, in service in the Civil War of 1861-1865.

Carpenters at work on the new building on Rawson road, have complained to the police that serious damage has been done to the premises of late, evidently by boys. Windows were broken and interior work damaged.

IN 1939

10 Years Ago This Week

As a result of the election held Monday, Officer Gerald Duggan was chosen president of the Arlington Police Relief Association, defeating the "New Dealers" and their slogan of "Keep the Gold Brail Off the Board." Officer Duggan received 48 of the 49 votes cast.

The Arlington High Basketball team won its first league game Tuesday afternoon by defeating Brookline High 25-18, at the Brookline Gymnasium.

Cushing Catholic Club

To Hold Monthly Dance

The Cushing Catholic Club will hold its monthly dance on Friday evening, January 14, at the Hotel Commander, Cambridge, from 8:30 to 12 p. m. in aid of the Archbishop Cushing Charity Fund.

Serving on the committee are the following Arlington members: Marcelle Tierney, Joan Howell, Helene Gagan, Margaret McPherson, Rose Timmins, Thomas Kidreagan, Hugh Keegan, Robert J. Dwyer, Charles McKenzie and John Mitchell, Jr. The club's winter sports weekend will take place the week-end of February 4, at Forest Glen Inn, North Conway, N. H. Members and friends planning to attend are urged to make early reservations with Mary E. McCarthy, 64 Windsor street.

Christian Science

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

Waterhouse Street and Massachusetts Avenue
Cambridge

Sunday Morning Service and
Sunday School, 10:45 A. M.
Wednesday, Testimonial Meeting, 8:00 P. M.
PUBLIC READING ROOM
28 Church Street, Harvard Square

J. S. WATERMAN & SONS
Funeral Service
LOCAL and DISTANT
Price Range For Any Demand
Information-Estimates
OFFICES & CHAPELS
CENTRALLY LOCATED

ROBBINS LIBRARY

New Additions—Jan. 10, 1949

FICTION

Brittain, V. M. Born 1925. Adrian Garbury belonged to a generation whose boyhood was shadowed by crisis after crisis, while his father was born in one of the calmest periods in history. This was one of the main factors in their great cleavage.

Knight, Brigid, pseud. Southern Cross. The terrible conflict between the English and the Boers in South Africa is reflected in the mind of Elizabeth Hugo who was adopted by an English family but married a man of Boer background.

Plant, R. R. Dragon in the Forest. The period during the two world wars was one of great insecurity and tension in Germany; growing up in that time, Willy Halder had to face the forces which were corrupting the country.

Read, H. E. Green Child. A fascinating story, beautifully written, of an English adventurer and a girl whose skin was a translucent green and who came from a strange world.

SAMPLES OF HISTORICAL FICTION OF 1948

Allis, Marguerite. Law of the Land. A story of the 19th century centering around American women and their fight to achieve civil rights.

Douglas, L. C. Big Fisherman. Stirling story of Simon Peter, the powerful, two-fisted fishing boss on the Sea of Galilee, who lays down his nets to follow Jesus, and Peter's world warping then as it is now.

Forbes, Esther. Running of the Tide. The young men of Salem were united in a common dream—to sail to the Orient; no different from the rest was Dash Innan who commanded his own ship at the age of twenty-five and who loved the belle of the town.

Fremantle, A. J. James and Jean. James I. of Scotland lived both a lonely and a romantic life; he was held prisoner by the English for eighteen years, but was freed and ruled Scotland for many years.

Kendrick, B. H. Flames of Time. A little known part of Florida's history is revealed in this story about bandits, Indians, and escaped slaves.

Mason, Van Wyck. Eagle in the Sky. The careers of three young doctors, which began in the year 1779 are followed through their loves, successes or failures are described vividly.

Noble, Hollister. Woman with a Sword. The magnificent story of the woman who helped to save the Union from annihilation in the early days of the Civil War.

Seton, Anya. Hearth and the Eagle. Marblehead is the setting for this story of a young girl who was born to the sound of the sea, and who lived during the period of many changes in the town.

NON-FICTION

Bendz, W. I. Electronics for Industry. For engineers who want a understanding of the fundamentals of electronics, this book furnishes a practical, non-mathematical explanation.

Bredow, Miriam. Handbook for the Medical Secretary. Provides information on all aspects of medical office routine with special chapters on insurance, office nursing techniques and dental secretarial duties.

Brown, W. A. Tuberosa begonias. A complete guide for amateur and specialist to one of the most colorful of flowering plants.

Bruckberger, R. M. The Seven Miracles of Gubbio and the Eighth, a parable. A simple, yet subtle little allegory founded on one of St. Francis's miracles.

Elisette, Elliot. Food is a four letter word. A prominent photographer now writes about the culinary side of his nature and gives many of his choice recipes.

Elwin, Malcolm. The First Romantics. A collective biography of Wordsworth, Coleridge and Southey, which show all three in perspective, in relation to one another and against the historical background that affected their thought and lives.

Emanuel, W. D. Your Camera: all the steps to good photography. An indispensable guide and reference book for the beginner.

Fotie, Konstantin. The War We Lost. Yugoslavia's tragedy and the failure of the West. The former Ambassador of Yugoslavia to the U. S. combines recent international history with re-

Centrally located in the community

Saville

FUNERAL SERVICE

418 MASS. AVE., ARLINGTON
Tel. ARLINGTON 5-1634

L. BROOKS SAVILLE NORMAN WALKINSHAW

That Man About Town

By MAT

Taxpayers can rejoice at one thing this year. It is the cost of snow removal. Just think back to the storms we had last year and visualize the cost. At this date a year ago we had had eleven storms and the cost to the Town was about $17,137, while to date this season, we have expended but $3,550. We can estimate it roughly that we have saved so far at least $1 on the new tax rate which will somewhat offset the tax-cost of the MTA deficit.

Now that election time for Town officials nears, we are struck with the thought (not original with us) that some official or Town Meeting member should institute proceedings to set up a committee to study the advisability of the Town changing its election dates from March to November. The logic of it is: In Town elections. With more than 24,000 registered voters in Arlington, doesn't it seem a shame that only 25% or so turn out in Town elections? It seems to us that if Town elections were held in conjunction with State and Federal elections, not only would we save costs (and taxes) but we would insure a more representative vote in Town elections. What do you think? There are other good reasons why such a shift of dates would be of benefit. So sit down, figure them out and drop us a line. We'll use your ideas but will see that you get full credit or will withhold your name if requested.

The Town is full of rumors. These are caused by the activity of the many candidates for public office. Most of them are groundless, for we have trailed many of them to the source to find it was "just an idea." At the moment, the race for Town Clerk seems to be of the most interest. With three candidates announced and other names being banded vealing personal details in this account of his country's turbulent fortunes.

Ives, Burl. Wayfaring Stranger. The well-known folk - ballad singer has written his own life-story—as warm and appealing, as much a part of America, as the songs he sings.

Karig, Walter. The Fortunate Islands, a Pacific Interlude. Captain Karig, a student of the Islands for many years, has written of his two months' solo cruise through Micronesia.

MacFayden, R. J. See without glasses, the correction of eye strain and the science of sight. Explains why you have difficulty in seeing; what causes defective vision; how you can improve your eyesight by simple exercises.

Madariaga, Salvador de. The Fall of the Spanish American Empire. A dramatic story of the Spanish empire in Latin America, stressing the cultural forces that shaped the destiny of that continent.

Morrison, J. D. ed. Masterpieces of Religious Verse. The most complete and valuable collection of the poetry of religion ever brought together in one volume.

Perley, Sidney. The history of Salem, Massachusetts v. 1. 1626-1637. v. 2. 1638-1670. Pope, Antoinette and Francois. Antoinette Pope School Cookbook. An exciting new collection of recipes by two professional cooks.

Sassoon, S. L. Meredith. A rich and fascinating life-story of one of England's great men of letters.

Schwitzer, Albert. On the edge of the primeval forest and more from the primeval forest. The experiences and observations of a religious and medical mission in French Equatorial Africa.

Shay, Frank. American Sea Songs and Chanteys from the days of iron men and wooden ships. Words and music of seventy-six rollicking sea chanteys and songs.

Stuntz, A. E. To make the people strong. The author takes you on an exciting trip to South America to find out how the Good Neighbor policy is working.

Sutton, Horace. Footloose in France. This guidebook to France is the gayest, most informative book on that country written since the war.

Wittrock, G. L. The pruning book, fruit trees and ornamentals. A well-illustrated, easy to follow pruning guide.

Mr. Freeman was a native of Arlington, the son of the late George T. and Annie Wynne Wood Freeman. He was the past 40 years he had been associated with the brokerage firm of Whitney and Elwell, in which he became a partner. A town meeting member, he was a trustee of the Pratt Fund and the Edwin S. Farmer Fund for Needy Persons. He was an incorporator and a trustee of the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank and a trustee of the First Baptist Church. A member of Hiram Lodge, A.F. and A.M., and Russell Lodge, A.F. and A.M., Arlington, he had formerly belonged to the Boston City Club and Winchester Country Club.

He leaves a son, John Doane Freeman of Dover; a daughter, Mrs. Phyllis Freeman Hughes of Arlington; four grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Harold L. Frost of Arlington.

Burial was in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

KIMBALL
Funeral Service
A. Allen Kimball
39 Church Street
Winchester 6-0200

Funeral Service
107 Years of Continuous Service
One of Greater Boston's Finest Chapels
J. H. HARTWELL & SON
L. E. A. SMITH FRED E. SPRAGUE
792 Massachusetts Ave., - Arlington
Tel. AR 5-3520

THE TOWN'S PEOPLE

When Ruth M. Dacey of 61 Newland road graduated from Arlington High School in 1943 her teacher predicted, "You'll hear from her some day." Well, that is just what is happening. Last August Ruth completed her fifth year at Hanscom Airport, Bedford, where she is in charge of Reserve Officers' records, and, as one of the most popular girls at the base, she was honored guest at a dinner given by officers and her co-workers.

Most people do not remember what Hanscom looked like five years ago, but Ruth made her way there that long ago after having filled positions of teller and later secretary to the treasurer in a Boston bank. It wasn't long before Ruth's charm and personality took hold, and, as one fellow worker aptly describes her, "a neat appearing, capable, efficient worker, who knows what to do, when to do, and how to do it."

The public schools in Arlington and Boston College In-Town did not tell Ruth anything about Reserve Records and the first 500 looked like a mountain. Today as Chief Clerk in the Reserve Record Section, Ruth feels pretty proud of the 16,000 forms she has processed, as well as the 55 airmen and 5 civilians she has trained. She now finds spare time at night to study Office Management and Law at Boston University.

Ruth is a carefree traveler and has covered thousands of miles. She plans another trip on her next leave.

Obituaries

MARY JANE MILLS

Private funeral services for Miss Mary Jane Mills, 88, of 29 Harlow street, who died last Friday, were held from the home on Monday, with the Rev. Charles Pedersen of Calvary Methodist Church officiating. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Miss Mills, a native of Mapleton, N. S., lived here for 30 years. She is survived by two sisters, Miss Louise and Miss Susan Ida Mills, both of Arlington.

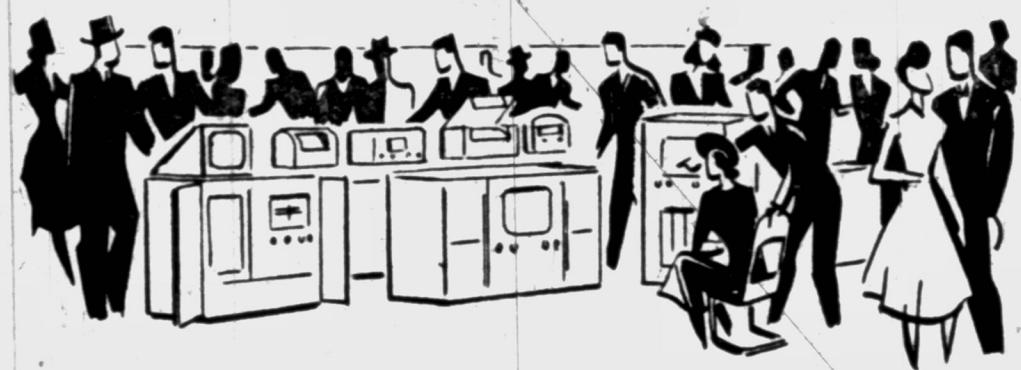

FREDERICK L. NEALEY
Frederick L. Nealey, 39, of 122 Washington street, a salesman for the Theatre Guide, Boston, died Monday in the Massachusetts General Hospital. He was born in Cambridge and lived in Medford before moving here. He was eight years old. He leaves his wife, four daughters, the Misses Ann, Gail, Joyce and Patricia Nealey, at home; his mother, Mrs. Mary Nealey of Reading; a brother, William Nealey of Portsmouth, N. H., and a sister, Mrs. Steven Ballick of Wilmington. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Berglund Funeral Home, 292 Massachusetts avenue, with burial in the Cambridge Cemetery.

GROVER C. GORTON
Funeral services for Grover C. Gorton, 63, of 369 Park avenue, who died last Friday, were held Monday in the Waterman Chapel, 495 Commonwealth avenue, Boston. Burial was in Swan Point Cemetery, Providence. He was New England sales manager for a New York shirt manufacturer.

THE WILSON CHAPEL
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
SERVICE AVAILABLE ANYWHERE AT ANY HOUR
Francis M. Wilson, Inc.
28 College Avenue
Somerville 44, Mass.
80merset 6-2379 — 6-0330

Burners Cleaned
GAMMELL'S HEATING SERVICE
Arl. 46 BROADWAY Arl.
Complete Gun and Rotary Burner Service
Days—Call AR 5-6292
Nights—Call AR 5-3258

RE-UPHOLSTER
YOUR LIVING ROOM SET
Your furniture completely rebuilt and returned to you looking like new. We have a complete line of fabrics. Our prices are reasonable.
SLIP COVERS MADE TO ORDER
FREE ESTIMATES
Easy Budget Terms
Living room furniture custom built to order.
Phone AR 5-5241 and Let Us Call on You
H. CHERNY AND SONS, Upholsterers
1042 MASS. AVE., ARLINGTON

be a "First Nighter" with
TELEVISION

CENTRE APPLIANCE, Inc.

ROSS LoPRESTI, Manager

(Formerly Ken Atkinson, Inc. — 452 Mass. Ave., Arlington Center)

PRESENTS . . The Best in Home Entertainment

RADIOS

TELEVISION

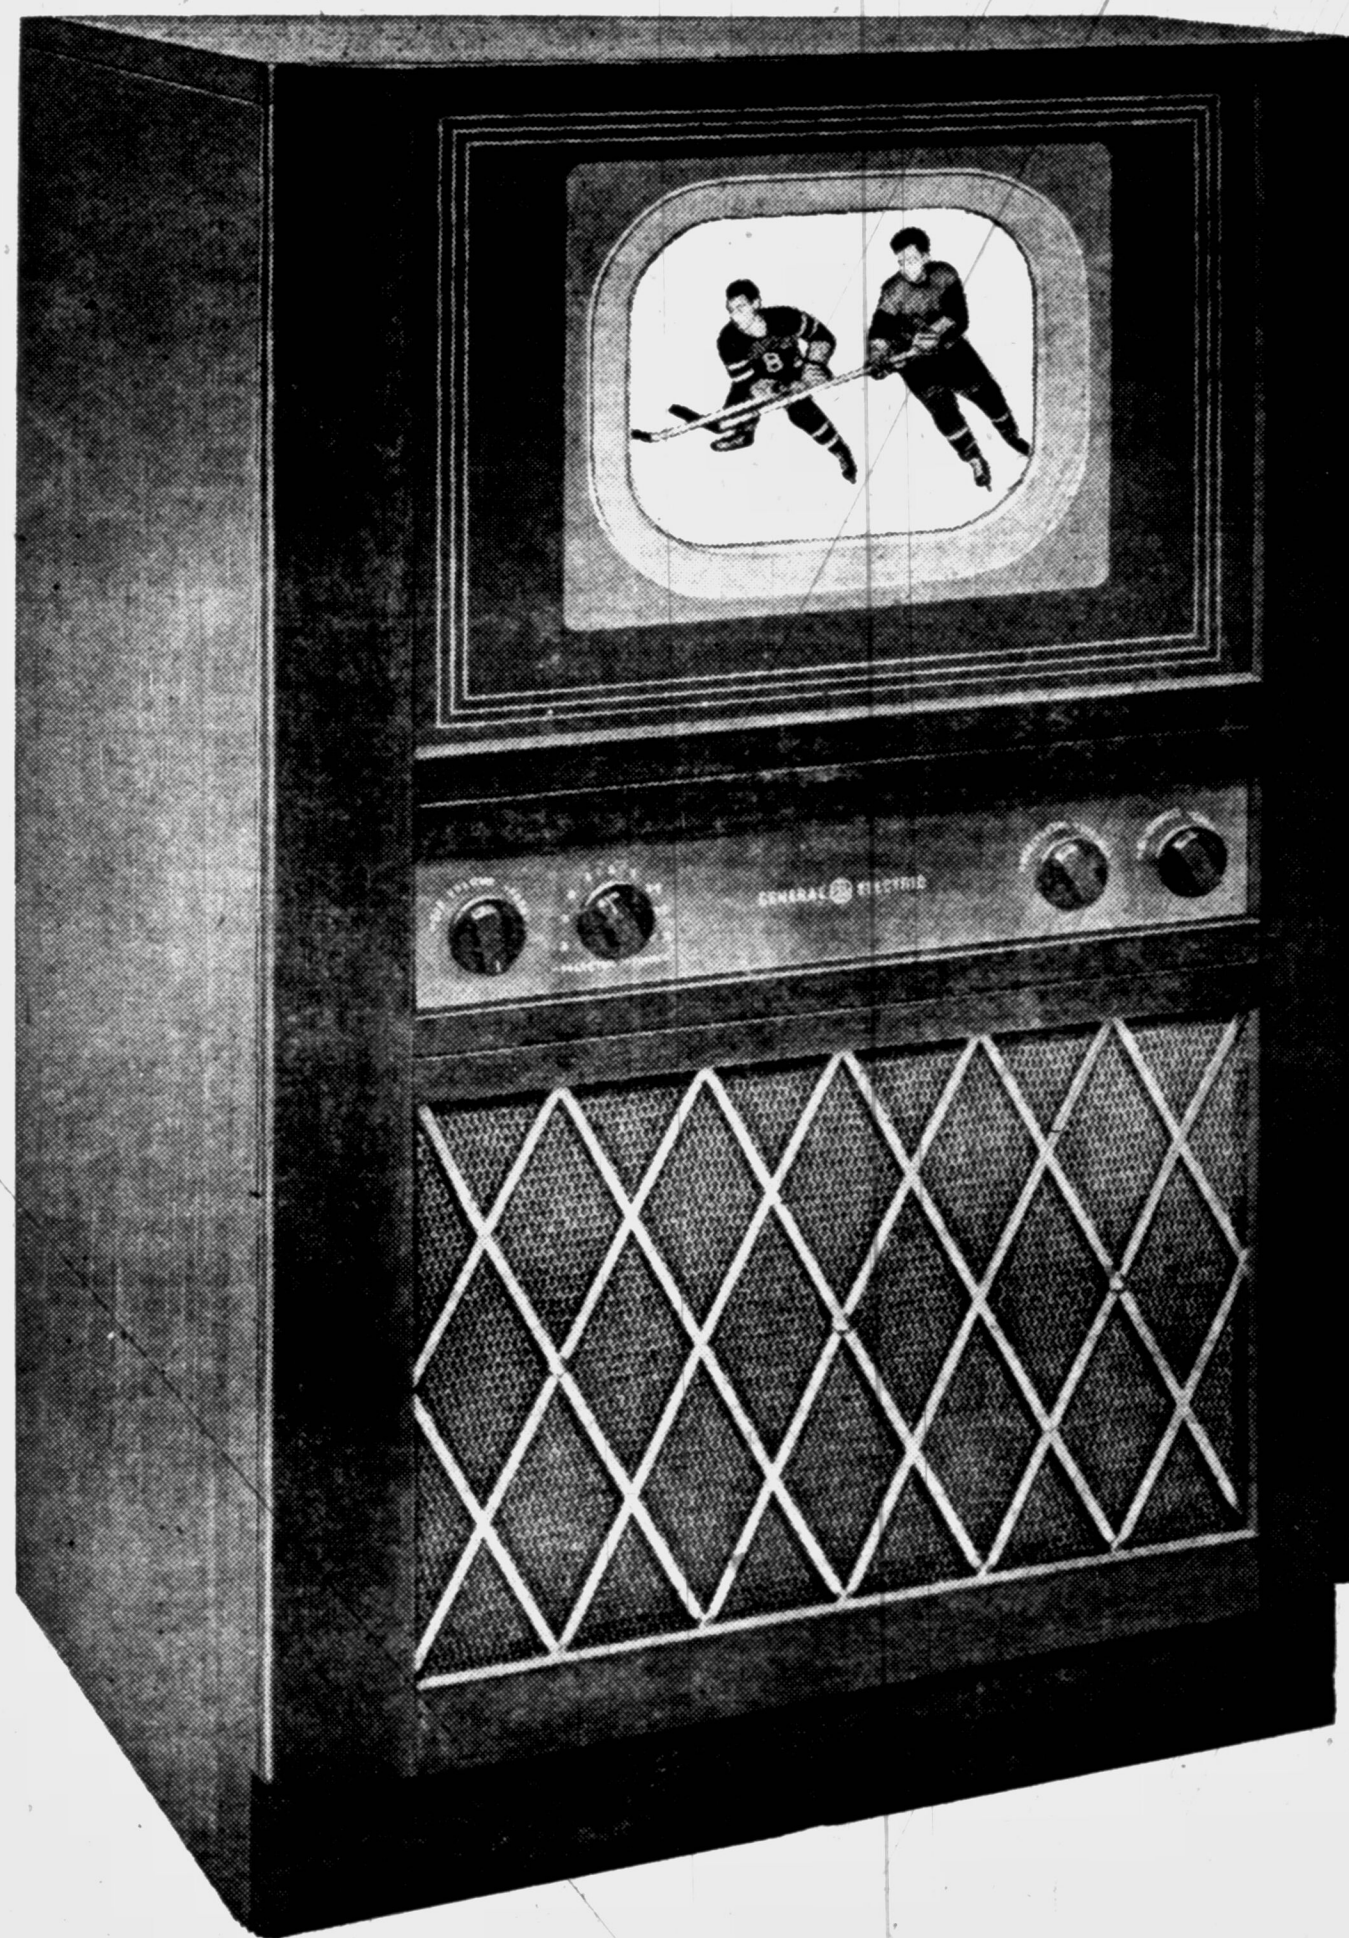

MODEL 814 GE DAYLIGHT TELEVISION

G. E. Daylight Television gives you the brightest picture under the sun. Here's the only kind of television you can see in full clarity in broad daylight. It's the greatest advancement in television today. Large 70 square inch picture, with 4 x 6 inch Dynopower speaker. Yet low power consumption. Individual channel control insures the best possible reception from each station. Smart cabinet of genuine mahogany. 12 channels—equipped to pick up all commercial U. S. television programs within range. If you move to another city, no further adjustments of the receiver are necessary. $389.50

Installation Charge — $75 With One-Year Guarantee

Demonstration can be Arranged by Calling
Mr. LoPresti
at
AR 5-0920

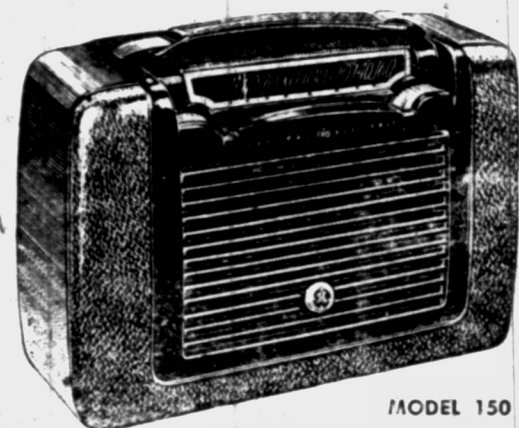

MODEL 811 12-CHANNEL TELEVISION RECEIVER

Handsome mahogany console of striking contemporary design. Size of picture approximately 52 square inches. Has 12 channels, one for each channel on which the FCC has allocated TV stations. No further adjustments of the set needed if you move away. 8-inch Dynopower speaker. Sharp, clear pictures made possible because of the G-E automatic clarifier which materially reduces the effects of interference sometimes caused by passing autos, etc. Low power consumption. When selecting a television set, be sure to weigh these many features. $359.95

Installation Charge — $70 With One-Year Guarantee

CONVENIENT BUDGET TERMS ARRANGED

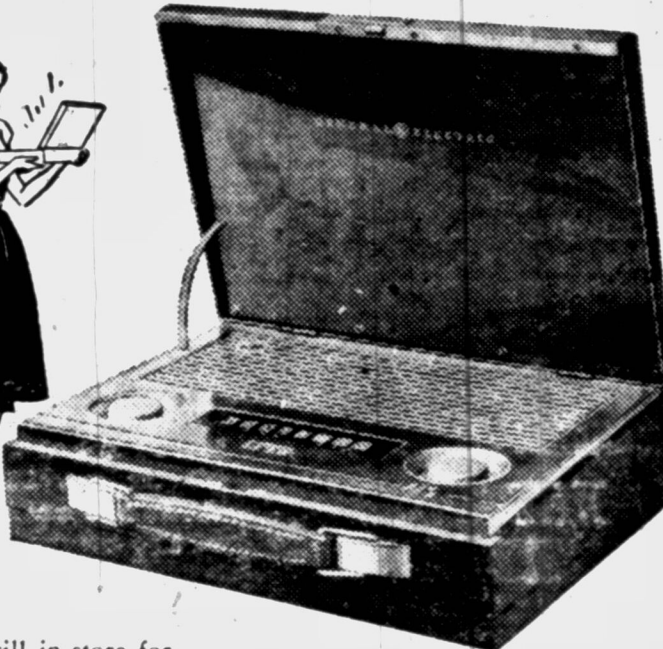

It's New! GENERAL ELECTRIC
PORTABLE

Performance
Engineered at Electronics
Park

When General Electric builds a new portable—man, that set is built! This new beauty has so much style you'd buy it on looks alone. And performance—well, you wouldn't imagine that any radio so light and compact could deliver such power, such tone, such selectivity. Versatile, too. Plays 3 ways—on either AC or DC house current, or with its own thrifty batteries. Hurry down and see Model 150. $39.95
(less batteries)

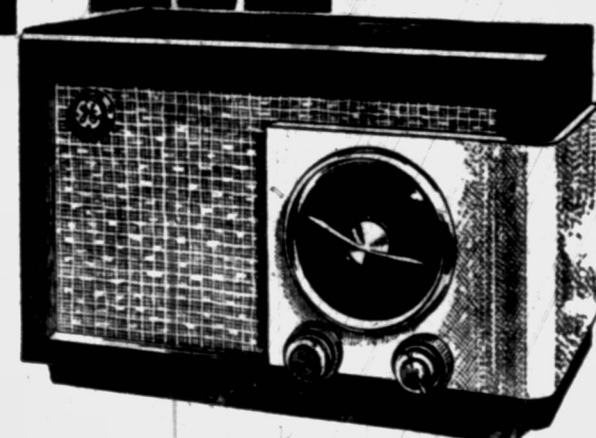

Personal Portable

There's a thrill in store for you—in our store—when you see and hear the exquisite new G-E very thin personal portable! Stunning maroon plastic case, a slender 2 3/4 inches! Lightweight—only 7 1/2 lbs. complete. AC, DC, batteries. Model 145. $44.95
(less batteries)

GREAT FM AT LOW COST

MODEL 212
$64.95

GENERAL ELECTRIC

Here's genuine FM from G.E., the first manufacturer in FM. Virtually free from static. Practically does away with fading and station interference. All the glory of natural color tone. AM broadcasts, too. Modern walnut cabinet. Model 212.

CENTRE APPLIANCE, INC.

ROSS LoPRESTI, Manager

Formerly Ken Atkinson, Inc.

452 Massachusetts Ave.

Tel. ARlington 5-0920

Arlington Center

OPEN THURSDAY and FRIDAY EVENINGS

CONVENIENT BUDGET TERMS

OTHER EVENINGS BY APPOINTMENT

Classified Section

75¢ for 24 Words
50¢ to Repeat
Cash in Advance

Lost and Found

LOST—Hamilton watch between Franklin street and Arlington Center. Initials J. J. P. on back case with inscription "From Lil to Dad" on inside cover. Liberal reward offered. Please call at 32 Franklin street or phone AR 5-1052. 6jan1f

LOST—Books No. 114897, 67893, 51650, 112058, 53971, and 1-78336 of Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank. Application has been made for payment of the accounts under General Laws, Chapter 167, Section 20. Payment has been stopped. 13jan1w

LOST—Book No. A-7835 of the Harvard Trust Company. Application has been made for payment of the accounts under General Laws, Chapter 167, Section 20. Payment has been stopped. 13jan1w

$25 REWARD for return or information leading to return of young, black, female Cocker Spaniel. Missing since January 6, 111 Gloucester street. Call AR 5-5126-W. 13jan1w

Refrigeration Service

FRIGIDAIRE, KELVINATOR, and many other repairable makes serviced and repaired. Also complete rebuilding with a guarantee. Used refrigerators bought and sold. Arlington Refrigerator Service, 1098 Mass. Ave., Arlington. Call AR 5-3981. 13jan1f

For Sale

FOR SALE—2 garage doors used, 4 ft by 7 ft. In excellent condition. Complete with hardware, including Yale lock with two keys. $25.00. Call AR 5-6789-J, 175 Wollaston avenue. 6jan1w

FOR SALE—Glenwood gas stove. Gray and white, in perfect condition. Also pair of French doors, regulation size. Call BE 5-3076-R. 30dec3w

FOR SALE—White Lapin evening jacket. Size 14. Used very little. Reasonable price. Call AR 5-4006-J. 13jan1w

WILL SELL crocheted popcorn bedspread. Large size and in excellent condition. Call AR 5-2093-R. 13jan1w

FOR SALE—Breakfast nook table and two benches. All in good condition. Call AR 5-2982-M. 13jan1w

FOR SALE—Two fine baby grand pianos in perfect condition. Will sell way below retail market. Call Ekman, Piano Tuner, Longwood 6-3122. 13jan2w

FOR SALE—Boy's black shoe skates, size 4-C. Almost new. Any reasonable offer. Call AR 5-4893-M. 13jan1w

FOR SALE—Kenmore electric sewing machine. Almost new. $100. Apply 61 Broadway, Mrs. Roache, top floor, or Call AR 5-6305-M. 13jan1w

FOR SALE—Prosperity 4-burner gas stove. Cream and black. In good condition. Priced very reasonable. Call AR 5-6976-J. 13jan1w

For Sale

FOR SALE—Hudson Seal coat in excellent condition. Size 14-16. Best offer. Call AR 5-5031. 13jan1w

FOR SALE—Yarns 20c and 15c per ounce. Odd lots, etc., from foremost manufacturers. Approximately 1/2 regular price. Sweater Shop, Acton, 3 miles from Concord Reformatory on Route 111. Call Acton 340 ring 3. 13jan3w

FOR SALE—Immediate delivery. Refrigerators, electric ranges, automatic washers, ironers, electric dryers, and home freezers. Trade in your old refrigerator for a new one. Also used refrigerators with one-year guarantee. Call EL 4-6881 after 6 p. m. or all day Saturday. 13jan1f

DON'T READ THIS unless you are a child at heart. Old-time penny candy. Cover design by 5-year-old. Joys of Childhood, 812 Boston street, Lynn, Mass. 1 1/2-lb. box, $1.50, postpaid east of Mississippi. $1.65 elsewhere. 13jan1f

For Rent

FOR RENT—Store in central location in Arlington Heights. Good for radio, bakery, or shoe store. Apply at 49 Park avenue. Arlington. 30dec1f

FOR RENT—Single room next to bath. Residential section near Arlington Center. Call AR 5-4888-R. Gentleman preferred. 13jan1w

FOR RENT—Desirable home in pleasant location near schools, churches, and stores. Middle-aged lady preferred. References. Call AR 5-1704-W after 10 a. m. 6jan1f

For Rent

FOR RENT—We have suite of 3 offices. Will rent one or one with use of common reception room. Falk Corp., 661 Massachusetts avenue, Arlington. AR 5-7542. 13jan1w

FOR RENT—Large 2-room furnished heated apartment. Living-bedroom. Twin beds, large closets, dinette, cooking facilities. Excellent location for business couple. References required. Call AR 5-2489-J. 13jan1w

Work Wanted

WORK WANTED—Business executive recuperating from illness desires position as night clerk or watchman. Reasonable salary. Write Box H, c/o Arlington Advocate, 15 Prescott street, Arlington. 6jan1f

WORK WANTED—Capable refined woman desires light housekeeping work. No heavy cleaning. Willing to help with children. Call AR 5-6853-J. 30dec1f

TUTORING—In Bookkeeping, Algebra, Economics. High School or college level. Call AR 5-4650. 6jan1f

WORK WANTED—Light housework, five mornings a week. Mending and sewing of all kinds a specialty. Phone AR 5-5169-R, between 8 and 10 a. m. only. 13jan1w

WORK WANTED—Capable woman to do house work in Arlington. Prefers to live in. Call AR 5-6853-J. 13jan1f

WORK WANTED—Expert stenographer desires typing to do at home. Please call AR 5-8058-W or AR 5-4382-M. 6jan1f

Miscellaneous

SPENCER CORSETS—Individually designed to beautify your figure and promote general health. Free figure analysis. Phone Mary V. Hartley, 82 Al-pine street, Arlington. AR 5-2784-J. 13jan1w

MOVIES—Will put on moving picture entertainment for church groups or clubs. 16mm. with sound. C. K. Batchelder, AR 5-4337. 30dec4w

OIL BURNER SERVICE. Immediate emergency service, nights, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. AR 5-3438. For your range and power oil burner cleaning and repairing service daily by appointment. Min. rates during regular working hours. Bob Spence. AR 5-7700. 30dec1f

UPHOLSTERING—Slip covers made to order. Furniture repaired and re-upholstered with plenty of beautiful and up-to-date materials. Prices reasonable. Budget accounts. Tel. KI 7-2767. 16sept1f

CHAIRS/CANED—Work reliable and guaranteed. 14 Bedford street, Lexington. Call LE 9-2167-M. 13jan5w

Wanted

APARTMENT WANTED—Post office employee wants 4-6 room apartment. Excellent references. Veteran of World War II. 1 child. Write Box A, c/o Arlington Advocate, 15 Prescott St., Arlington 74, Mass. 30dec1f

WANTED—3 or 4 room unfurnished apartment by young business couple. Excellent references. Please call AR 5-1288-W. 30dec1f

Wanted

APARTMENT WANTED—Veteran and wife desire 3-5 room unfurnished apartment in Arlington or vicinity. Please call AR 5-8058-W or AR 5-4382-M. 6jan1f

APARTMENT WANTED—A BONUS of 1 month's rent to person leading M.I.T. staff member and family to rental of apartment in a 2-family house. Not over $60 per month. Call AR 5-0280-W. 13jan2w

INVISIBLE WEAVING SERVICE

Expert Workmanship
Prompt Service
SAVE TIME - SAVE MONEY
SAVE YOUR CLOTHES
Florence C. Plunkett
442 Mystic St. AR 5-6372-M

World Service Members Collect Many Articles

The workers at the Pleasant Street Congregational Church for Church World Service on Wednesday, January 5, included: Miss Sarah J. Bullock, Mrs. Charles T. Bunker, Mrs. Fred C. Campbell, Mrs. Frank Clare, Miss Grace E. Dennett, Miss Amy Yeames, Mrs. Harold L. Frost, Mrs. William E. Hardy, Mrs. Russell T. Hamlet, Mrs. Ralph B. Lancaster, Mrs. John J. McCarthy, (who brought in seven children's two-piece dresses which she had made), Mrs. Glen E. Owens, Mrs. Warren J. Seavey, Mrs. W. L. Williams, Miss Clara E. Wadleigh, Vis-Eva Dickinson and the chairman, Mrs. Harold B. Wood. Sixteen jigs were packed which were later baled by Clark Hamlet.

The committee acknowledged a large donation of clothing from the Park Avenue Congregational Church, also crayons, writing pads and pencils, a box of clothing from Bruce A. Whitton (11 years old), 37 Hawthorne avenue, and Mrs. George Whalley, 71 Menotomy road. Mrs. John Muller and Mrs. Joseph Travis brought in clothing collected by Girl Scout Troop 26. Clothing from a recent W.C.T.U. rummage sale was also packed. Mrs. Mary J. Kinney, 50 Hawthorne avenue, contributed many knitted articles which she had fashioned from odds and ends of yarn, furnished by C.W.S.

Articles may be left at the church at any time or will be called for if AR 5-4704 is buzzed.

Vets Appreciate Gifts

Mrs. Muriel Todd, Director of Mothers and Wives of World War II Veterans of Arlington Club, is the recipient of a letter of thanks and appreciation from Peter V. Cignetti, Recreational Director of Bedford Hospital, for the gift boxes sent at Christmas. Again this year all Arlington Veterans at this hospital were remembered by the club.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Emily Squires, 22 Avon place, on Friday evening, January 21, at 8 o'clock. This will be a postponed Christmas party with exchange of gifts. Refreshments in charge of Mrs. Emily Squires, Mrs. Sara Kane, Mrs. Dorothy MacNeill and Mrs. Muriel Todd.

Symmes Head Speaks Before Nursing Ass'n

The annual meeting of the Visiting Nursing Association was held Tuesday, January 11 in the Junior Library Hall. Bouillon, served at 10 a. m. by a committee chairmanned by Mrs. P. Harmon Spiers, preceded the meeting.

At 10:30 a. m. Vernon E. Rich, director of Symmes Hospital, was introduced by the interim president, Mrs. Melvin O. Campbell. Mr. Rich outlined the problems in running a general hospital in these days of high prices—the staff requirements and regulations required, the daily routine in serving 58 patients. He also outlined the plans of the new building and the reasons for it, confessing he is the victim and not the instigator of the plan, as the addition has been talked of for ten years. The hospital has cared for 4,200 patients during the year.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Campbell. Mrs. Arthur Birch read her annual secretary's report. Mrs. Fred Hill, that of the treasurer, and Miss Caroline Fandell, supervisor of nurses, gave her report.

The result of the election was as follows: Temporary President, Mrs. Marvin O. Campbell; first vice president, Mrs. Melvin O. Campbell; second vice president, Mrs. Hallam Ring; recording secretary, Miss Edith Wain; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edward Barnard; treasurer, Mrs. Frederick Hill. Directors for three years, Mrs. Rexford James, Mrs. Andrew Magnus, Mrs. M. Norcross Stratton, Mrs. Arthur Birch and Mrs. Clarence Brown. Directors for two years, Mrs. Frank Parker; Mrs. Zimont Kord; Mrs. Ross Chapin; Mrs. Leonard Bradford and Mrs. Laurence Eaton. Directors for one year, Miss Isabel Hallett, Mrs. Walter Boone, Mrs. Marvin O. Campbell, Mrs. Raymond Farnen and Mrs. Paul Power.

The nominating committee was composed of Mrs. Stratton, Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Alma S. Kidder, Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Brackett and Mrs. Pierce.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE

With Lana Turner, Gene Kelly, June Allyson, Van Heflin and Angela Lansbury at the head of one of the biggest "name casts", "The Three Musketeers" starts Sunday at the University Theatre to present a pageant of technical spectacle of Alexander Dumas' unforgettable story of the adventurous musketeers whose motto was "One For All, and All for One." The March of Time "Watch of the Mail", "Glamour Street", a "This is America" subject, and "Catafina Interlude", a musical novelty, complete the program.

THE HOME FOR YOUR DOLLARS—THE DOLLARS FOR YOUR HOME

ANY WAY YOU LIKE!

We offer you savings plans enabling you to save any way you like. For making deposits or withdrawals at any time, use our New-Type Thrift (Savings) Account. Such an amount makes it unnecessary to disturb your planned saving. Every dollar is fully insured at all times.

For steady, regular saving, come in and use our Systematic Monthly Savings Plan. Your money is fully insured and constantly earning good dividends.

Sachem Council Moves

Plans and preparations are well underway, according to a report from Scout Executive Phil Johnson, for the moving of the Sachem Council Headquarters from Arlington, where it has been located for many years, to Lexington, on January 14. Appreciation is extended to those Scouts and men who have assisted in completing the many details at the new location. Among the many men contributing in time and labor and material are Harry Barnes, one of the Council's oldest Scouts and Scoutmaster of Troop 15 in Belmont; Arthur Lenny, vice chairman of the Lexington-Bedford District; Lawrence Ormond, Scoutmaster in the Lexington District; Willis Munroe, Camping Chairman of the Arlington District, and Hollis MacDougall and a group of painters from Lexington, for a splendid job in redecorating the interior of the section of the Barnes property to be used by the Sachem Council ofice.

Don Cossacks in Superb Program

That splendid and unique organization known as the Don Cossack Chorus, headed by the incomparable Jaroff, appeared once more in Symphony Hall, Boston, last Sunday afternoon to the salvos of a near-capacity audience. Not in years has this writer witnessed such enthusiasm from a Boston audience as greeted this group of emigre Russians, and well it deserved the tribute. It was almost 20 years ago that the Don Cossacks made their first appearance in this country to gain at once the affection of a music-loving citizenry. And through the years Jaroff and his men have maintained the high artistic standard that they set at the very beginning of their career here.

It was a superb concert that they gave us on Sunday. Opening with The Creed (Credo) by Kastaisky, with its powerful recitation by the basses and interpreted in the middle with the soft, lovely melody of the tenors, which literally almost brought the audience to its feet, the chorus sang fifteen numbers and gave two encores at the insistence of the audience. The second number, Tchaikovsky's haunting song of the Russian night service, "Blessed Art Thou, O Lord", was another highlight of the afternoon, but perhaps the most moving and magnificent number of the afternoon was "Recollections of Tchaikovsky", a combination of the Russian master's popular compositions, arranged for the chorus by Shvedoff, and including the glorious andante cantabile from the Fifth Symphony. Then there were some lighter songs, including the charming "Cradle Song" of Laddoff, "On Saturday", and Jaroff's own arrangement of "Twelve Robbers" (Old Monastery Ballads).

The program closed with the stirring "The Regiment was Riding", which tells of a Cossack who went to a strange land with a regiment, and the stirring rhythm of this song portrays the gallop of the riders' horses. It was a fitting closing of a splendid concert. And one should not overlook the exciting dancing of Kozak and Kuinka.

M. Jaroff is a bit grayer, as is to be expected, but he still remains the fine artist and superb showman.

Town Topics

Rev. Laurence L. Barber, who has been the interim pastor at the Congregational Church at Bedford during the Fall, is now filling the same position at the First Congregational Church in Melrose.

"The Steamship Tenacity", a comedy by Charles Vildrac, will open tomorrow night in the Tufts College Theater, Medford, as the winter production of Pen, Paint and Pretzels, honorary student dramatic society. Curtain time will be 8:30 p. m. for the five performances, January 14, 15, 20, 21 and 22.

Aboard the destroyer USS Hyman, which has just completed several weeks' duty with the United Nations Mediator in Palestine, in connection with observations of the truce between Israel and Arab forces, is Vincent D. Reinold, taleman, third class, USN, son of Mrs. Mary Reinold of 84 Tufts street.

Bob Spence Opens New Dept.

BOB SPENCE OLD ARLINGTON FIRM

Bob Spence, heating equipment contractor, because of the confidence placed in them by satisfied customers, is one of Arlington's leading business firms. The firm has a capable, well-trained organization, ready to fill your servicing needs for any heating system, whether it is a hot water, steam, or winter air-conditioning unit.

In order to insure maximum heating results, Bob Spence also offers practical heating consultation to eliminate excessive fuel consumption and troublesome complaints, with the help of the latest testing instruments and recording charts at nominal hourly rates.

Bob Spence and Company are specialists on design and installation of new heating systems and welcome inquiries by architect, builder, and prospective home owner. The firm is the holder of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Certificate of Competency for oil burner installations. Bob Spence is also a member of the Oil Heat Institute of New England. In order to bring you the best results with highly trained men, all of Spence's crew have taken courses at M.I.T. in heating engineering. At present, the entire crew is studying at the Oil Heat Institute of New England.

Bob Spence has long been connected with the finest products in the oil heating equipment business. He features such nationally known products as the Cleveland Toridheet Wall Flame Oil Burner, Lynn Burners, Norge Heat and Winter Air Conditioning System, New England, Maid two-even gas and oil combination range, Raytheon Electronic Preheater, H. B. Smith cast iron heating boilers and American Standard Heating Equipment.

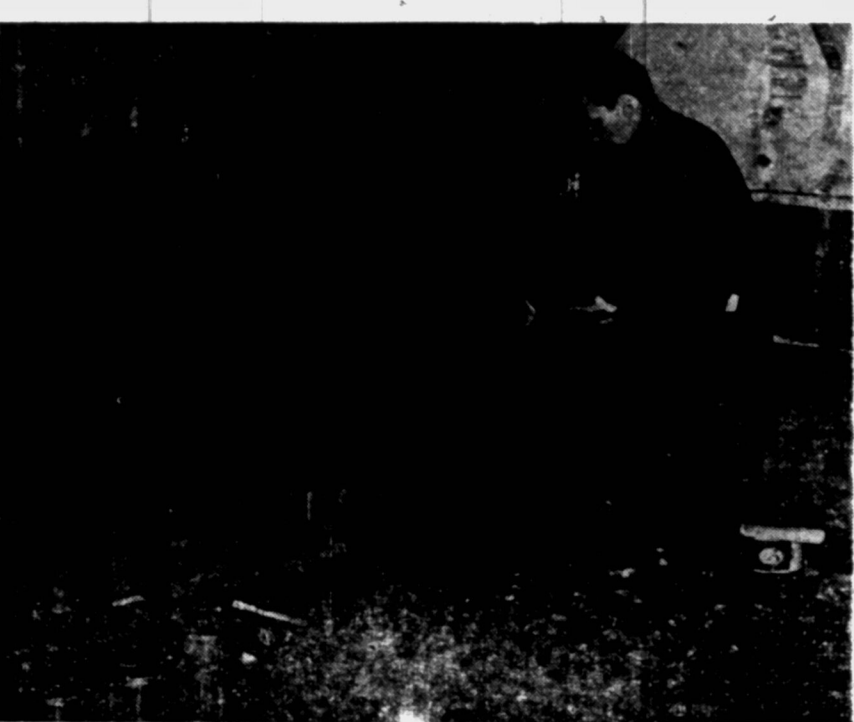

25% FUEL SAVINGS GUARANTEED

Pictured above is Bob Spence, proprietor of the Bob Spence Heating Equipment Contractors firm, demonstrating one of the new Toridheet Rotary Wall Flame Burners, which automatically circulates a uniform flow of humidified and filtered warm air to every room in the house. Spence's customers have attested to the fact that they have saved more than 25% in fuel costs with the installation of these units. This saving is actually guaranteed to every customer of Bob Spence.

Sheet Metal Shop For Warm Air Conditioning

Bob Spence, heating specialist and equipment contractor, has announced the opening of a new workshop at 1 Forest street to manufacture ducts for warm air conditioning. Within the workshop, Spence has ample facilities and materials for fabricating ducts for this type of heating. The Spence firm is featuring his new Toridheet rotary burner warm air units. Spence installs these new warm air units in new homes as well as remodeling the old gravity systems, changing them to the modern forced air systems. These new burners have combustion chamber and heat exchanger of exclusive design, made of boiler plate steel, welded into rugged gas-tight, integral unit for maximum efficiency and greater fuel economy. This burner is extremely quiet, featuring a rubber-mounted blower unit.

The nationally known automatic control accessories accompanying the burner include a thermostat, safety control, fan and limit control, and float-controlled humidifier with Vapoglass evaporating segments. The whole unit is completely enclosed in a smart round-cornered steel cabinet handomely finished in durable easy-to-clean hammeroid enamel. The cabinet has a metal floor to seal against dust and leakage. The access doors lift out entirely. Another feature of the Toridheet burner is the full length metal skids which elevate the bottom of the cabinet above the basement floor.

FASHIONING HOT AIR DUCTS

Shown above is Arthur Garland, manager of Bob Spence Heating Equipment Contractors, at work in the new sheet metal shop at 1 Forest Street. This branch of the firm was opened last October to provide facilities for complete prefabrication or fabrication of duct work. Capable, well-trained men, thorough in their knowledge of sheet metal work, fashion and install ducts through this plant.

OFFICE 15 WARREN ST.
WORKSHOP 1 FOREST ST.
Night Emergency Service
AR 5-3438

IT'S BOB SPENCE
For OIL BURNERS
HEATING EQUIPMENT SERVICE
CALL AR 5-7700

PROVIDING WINTER COMFORT

Clip out this coupon and take advantage of our mid-winter offer on new equipment purchases.

This Coupon entitles you to practical heating consultation by BOB SPENCE
15 Warren Street
Arlington 74, Mass.
AR 5-7700 - AR 5-3438

Name _____
Address _____

Tel. _____
NO CHARGE FOR THIS SERVICE
— With Coupon —

Pictured at left is some of the duct work installed by Bob Spence in one of Arlington's public buildings. This type of aluminum ducting is typical of the fine work that goes into every heating unit installed by the Spence Heating Equipment Contractors. Units of this type create a quiet, slow-burning flame, blue at the base with orange tips. The low velocity and natural draft of these units keep the heat in constant contact with the heating surfaces to utilize every unit of heat and attain an exceptionally high efficiency.

-BOB SPENCE-

Viano's REGENT

THURS. - FRI. - SAT.
JAN. 13 - 14 - 15

Randolph Scott
Marguerite Chapman

"CORONER CREEK"

- Co-Feature -
Ross Ford - Gloria Jean

"Manhattan Angel"

THURSDAY NIGHT
ON OUR STAGE
IN PERSON
"Stars of Tomorrow"

Saturday Matinee

HAPPY HOUR SHOW

Doors Open at 12:30
Show Starts at 1:00 P. M.

SUN. - MON. - TUES. - WED.
JAN. 16 - 17 - 18 - 19

Gary Cooper - Ann Sheridan

"GOOD SAM"

- Co-Feature -
Chester Morris - June Vincent

"Trapped by Boston Blackie"

NOW!

MATINEE SHOW STARTS
AT 2:00 P. M.

DOORS OPEN AT 1:30

CAPITOL Arlington

NOW PLAYING
THRU SAT., JAN. 15th
Montgomery Clift
Arlene MacMahon
"THE SEARCH"

— Plus —

Edmund Gwenn - Janet Leigh
"HILLS OF HOME"

(In Color)

SAT. MATINEE ONLY
"FEDERAL AGENTS" Serial

STARTS SUN. THRU TUES.
JAN. 16-18

Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon

"Julia Misbehaves"

— Plus —
Dane Clark - Gail Russell

"MOONRISE"

"FAMILY NITES"

EVERY MON. & FRI. EVES.

WED. - SAT., JAN. 19-22
Wanda Hendrix - John Lund

"Miss Tatlock's Millions"

— Plus —
Dick Powell - Jane Greer

"STATION WEST"

FARRINGTON'S Mystery Tunes
7:30 - 8:00 P. M.

UNIVERSITY UN 4-4580

NOW THRU SATURDAY
John Lund - Wanda Hendrix
Monty Woolley
Barry Fitzgerald

"MISS TATLOCK'S MILLIONS"

Dick Powell - Jane Greer
"Station West"

CHILDREN'S MOVIE

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 15
AT 10 A. M.

"The Three Musketeers"

"CONGO BILL"—Chapter 6

Sun., Mon., Tues., Jan. 16, 17, 18

Lana Turner - Gene Kelly

"The Three Musketeers"

THE MARCH OF TIME
"Watch of the Mail"

WED. THURS. FRI. SAT.
JAN. 19, 20, 21, 22

Betty Grable - Dan Dailey

"WHEN MY BABY SMILES AT ME"

Louis Hayward - Janet Blair

"The Black Arrow"

Continuous Daily from 1:30

Five-year-old Boy Furnished Idea for Unique Revival of Old-Time Penny Candy

Betty Hendrick Nelson's Son Big Help In Her Successful New Enterprise

Troop 8

"Plan your work and work your plan" is reiterated by the Troop as its New Year's resolution. The January program calls for attention to handicraft and outdoor camping with specific projects for each Monday evening meeting. On the third, work on a miniature camp layout window display to be shown later at R. W. Shattuck's store during Scout Week was begun. This is in charge of Troop Committeeman Mal Masters and Eagle Scout Ronny Simmonds. On the tenth, consideration will be given to "Winter Safety" under Troop Committeeman John K. Berry, Jr. On the sixteenth, a special movie, "Swim and Live," will be shown. While on the twenty-fourth, the Rev. David G. Colwell will talk on "Some New England Evergreens." On the thirty-first, Troop Committeeman Zeke Finch will hold forth on "Menu Planning and Outdoor Cooking." That the Troop program is attractive is attested by the several applications for membership now pending. One new member, Richard Madigan, has passed the Tenderfoot requirements since last report.

The Troop is honored in having had its Junior Assistant Scoutmaster, Bill Berry, recently named as Second Alternate in appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis by the Hon. Edith Nourse Rogers, Congresswoman for the Fifth District. It is said that 65 percent of the successful candidates to West Point and Annapolis are former Boy Scouts and Bill apparently wished to swell that percentage. He was the leader of the Troop's outstanding Pioneer Patrol, which won both Camporee and Camporall competition in 1946. This was the first Arlington patrol to win those coveted first place honors in several years. As he has drawn much from Scouting, he has given much back to Scouting, in return, and is now the Troop's Junior Assistant Scoutmaster and senior Eagle Scout—Gold Palm.

Cub Pack 86

The Pack meeting was opened by Cub Master Dan O'Grady, who spoke to the parents and Cubs about the Cub Program. He called attention to the Military Whist to be held on Monday, January 31, and asked all of the boys to sell as many tickets as possible as the proceeds would be used for the benefit of the Pack. Compliments were extended Miss Paula V. Donovan for the attractive posters she had made advertising the Whist Party.

Clifford Martell, Cub Pack 44 of Cambridge, assisted by Peter McLaughlin, entertained the Pack with a magic show. This was followed by movies, shown by Ezra Parsons, Handicraft Man.

Dick Olsen, Advancement Man, gave Registration Cards to three new boys, C. W. Anderson, David Hartling and William Warnock. He made the following wards: Bear—Wayne Parsons, Alex McDonald, Luke McSorley, Herbert Farnsworth, John Rivers, Paul Turner; Wolf—Eddie Gilbert, Robert Donovan, John Rivers; Lion—Noel Greiner, Luke McSorley; Gold Arrow—Alex McDonald, Luke McSorley, John Ashton, John Rivers and Paul Turner; Silver Arrow—John Ashton, Herbert Farnsworth, John Rivers, Paul Brown, Buddy Peabody; Paul Turner, Dan O'Grady and Richard Olsen.

Capitol Theatre in New Affiliation

Manager Howard Parker has announced that the Capitol Theatre in East Arlington is now an affiliate of the American Theatres Corporation, which recently acquired from Paramount Pictures its entire interest in the group formerly called the Netoco chain.

Samuel Pinanski, veteran showman, is president of the American Theatres Corporation, which is completely owned and operated by New England interests. A leader for more than a decade in civic, financial and industry affairs, Mr. Pinanski served as national movie chairman for the Seventh War Loan, as well as in many other top posts in war time endeavors.

Frank McManus, for many years a leader in the motion picture industry in New England, in a key executive position for American Theatres Corporation, will be district manager of the theatre. The Capitol Theatre will continue its high standard of operation, presenting the best in modern screen entertainment.

Bridge Party

The Arlington Catholic Woman's Club will hold its bi-weekly matinee bridge and whist party at the Arlington American Legion Hall on Tuesday, January 18, at 2 p.m. Mrs. Thomas Hanbury, the hostess, will be assisted by a committee of club members.

Don't read this interesting story, dear reader, unless you are a child at heart!

Betty Hendrick Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Hendrick of Draper avenue, had an idea—an idea that everybody likes penny candy as much as she does. What to do? After all, most of the corner penny candy stores are gone over the past few decades. Arlingtonians and especially people who attended the Russell School back around 1918, remember A. D. Sprague's store on Mystic street. It was the unofficial trolley car station for the old Winchester line, with pot-bellied stove, candy, pop-corn, chewing gum galore was on display; newspapers

Troops 25 and 38

Scout Troop 25 is proud of the investiture ceremony held when Mary Jane Quirk, Beverly Brown, Judith Washburn and Valerie Curtin became members of the troop along with Charlotte Clymer, Mary Grace Fraser, Beverly Geldart, Eleanor Hogan, and Elaine Manzelli who flew up from Troop 38, Miss Mary Leveroni, executive director of the Arlington Girl Scouts, conducted the service. Old members who received the new include Carol Ikals, Margaret Glynn, Anna Marie Mantelli and Arline Smith.

Mothers of the members of Troop 25 and Brownie Troop 38 were present for the ceremonies and afterwards the girls served tea. Beginning on January 18, an eight week Group Leadership Course will be held at Girl Scout Headquarters. The sessions will include an introduction to Girl Scouting—history, etc., troop organization, troop committees, program activities, record keeping, etc. All new leaders, and all old leaders, who have never had a Group Leadership Course are invited to attend. For Experienced Leaders—if you are in need of new program ideas you will want to attend the Program Activity Round Tables to be held on Thursdays at Girl Scout Headquarters starting on January 20. Methods of carrying out the various fields of interest through badge activities will be discussed, and already-tried ideas exchanged.

"The Red Shoes" Now In Ninth Week

The lavish technicolor spectacle, "The Red Shoes," now in its ninth week at the Majestic Theatre, Boston, where it is showing twice daily including Sunday all seats reserved, has been endorsed by critical attendants of the cinema as one of the finest films ever to be shown in Boston.

"The Red Shoes," which was produced by J. Arthur Rank, is based on the famous Hans Christian Andersen story, with fairy tale beauty, music and story. The music was composed by Sir Thomas Beecham, who conducts the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, which is prominently featured in "The Red Shoes."

Richard Whorf to Appear in "Richard III"

Richard Whorf, one of Massachusetts' favorite sons and an eminent actor and director in the theatre and motion pictures, returns to Boston for a personal appearance in the title role of Shakespeare's tragedy "Richard III," for a two-week engagement at the Copley Theatre beginning Monday evening, Jan. 12. In addition to Mr. Whorf in the title role, the play will have in its cast the following: Philip Bourneuf, Frances Reid, an outstanding actress, Grace Coppin, Will Kuluva, William Nichols, Polly Rowles, Michael Sivy, Joseph Foley, Robert Harris and Walter Appleby.

Rev. J. N. Mark Speaks Before Woman's Club

Members of the Arlington Woman's Club, at their first meeting of the year, presided over by the president, Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield, received both inspirational and spiritual knowledge from the excellent talk presented by the Rev. John Nicol Mark, one of Arlington's well-known clergymen.

Mr. Mark cited excerpts from his recent trip to Europe and said, "How fortunate we are to be living in America, and how appreciative we should be," and "We should take time to count our blessings and Faith will inspire us on the journey of life."

Mrs. Nathan Wood paid tribute to the memory of Mrs. Warren A. Peirce, late member of the club. Mrs. Elmer Barber passed on to the club, highlights of the January meeting of the Club Institute.

Mrs. C. Rodney Sage introduced Mrs. Robert McCloskey, contralto, accompanied by Elias Lopez, who delighted the audience with several selections in French and German.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Coyle of 163 Newport street were hosts on the holiday eve to a small group of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barney, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pope, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coyle.

Cute Little three-year-old Abigail helps her mother weigh out penny candies for a new and unique business venture.

pers (the Advocate, too), corn cobs, pipes, tobacco—especially the chewing kind—were to be had. Remember?

Something Different

Betty's idea was to bring the old penny candy store right into the home in box form. A box filled with those old-time delights—Tootsie Rolls, licorice sticks, Boston baked beans. And so she conceived the idea of "Joys of Childhood" penny candies—"And for Grown-ups, Too!" which she now sells from her attractive home at 812 Boston street, Lynn.

But we are a bit ahead of our story. One afternoon while at home with her two charming children, Garrison, five, and Abigail, three, she heeded their plea for candy and gave them some pennies for a trip to the neighborhood candy store. She recalled her own childhood when the stores were stocked with such items as "I Love U" Tootsies, "My Queen" and similar sentiments embossed on the candy.

And of course there were Tootsie Rolls, Mary Janes and all the other joys of childhood memory. But the neighborhood store had not one of these items as was proved when the children returned home with a few pieces of "modern" candy. It was then that Betty's idea was born. She sent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

The young artist sprawls on the floor while waiting for inspiration for the candy box cover that has already received much favorable attention.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

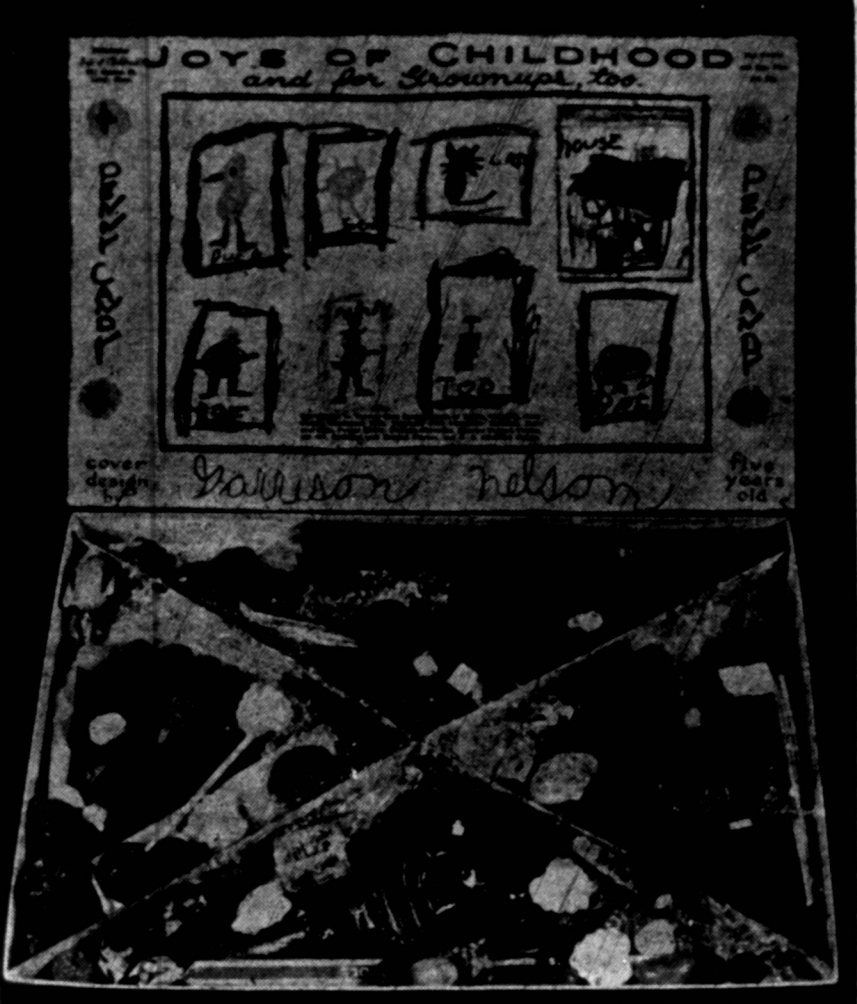

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

Five-year-old Garrison Nelson is the artist who drew these unusual designs for the gay candy box shown at the top. Below is the penny candy of childhood memory.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping" candy for the price of a penny—one of these fine days Betty cent.

ent to an advertising agency to have a packaging idea that would not be a strain on her slender purse but would at the same time be attractive enough to appeal to children—and grown-ups. In all she received 100 typical stereotyped "art" proposals. Then began the work of processing the young artist's ideas to tell the advertising man what she wanted she picked up some squares of paper from the floor. They were the crayon drawings of her son Garrison. The mother knew instinctively she had struck gold, so to speak. It was the simple, unaffected "art" that any child could understand or do that Betty's idea was born. She

For instance, there was a yellow duck with red legs and red bill; a man with green legs and a boy with red legs. The advertising man had to admit that this was something new, something unique in the way of packaging. Then began the work of coloring the drawings. While processing the young artist's work for the new candy box. But this was not the end of Garrison's art career by a long shot. One day Betty asked Garrison if he could draw a picture of a boy eating a lollipop for a newspaper advertisement. He could and did—promptly. He is his mother's principal collaborator and rather proud of it, too.

One of these fine days Betty cent.

Sister Abigail is not quite old enough to offer merchandising show in her home just to give the ideas for this new business, but kids in the neighborhood have a chance to get a "whopping"

Gregory's
162 MASS AVE
ARLINGTON

Complete Formal Wear
For Hire
• TUXEDOS
• CUTAWAYS
• FULL DRESS

CLEANING - TAILORING
HABERDASHERY
Call Gregory
AR 5-5380-W

Wm. B. Houser Co.
1195 Mass. Ave.
• Linoleum Floors
• Asphalt Tile
• Cork Tile
• Rubber Tile
• Linoleum
• Broadloom Carpeting
AR 5-2831
Free Estimate - No Obligation

Town Topics
—Holiday week-end company at the home of the Hedley Barnhills, 14 Ashland street, were Mrs. Barnhill's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marr and their son, Billy, from Albany, N. Y. The Barnhills entertained in their honor with a family party on New Year's Eve.

Grange Installs Officers

A large group of members and guests witnessed the public installation of the officers of Arlington Grange in the American Legion Hall on Thursday evening of last week.

Clyde S. Hennigar, Deputy of the Massachusetts State Grange, was the installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Hennigar as the marshal. All of the suite were from Danvers.

Frank Perry was installed as Master and the other officers for 1948 are as follows: Ernest Figenbaum, Overseer; Mrs. Elizabeth Witthous, Lecturer; Mrs. Edna Potter, Steward; Frederick Mannix, Asst. Steward; Mrs. Edith Figenbaum, Chaplain; Eli Maynard, Treasurer; Mrs. Anne Perry, Secretary; Jeanne Black, Gate Keeper; Ceres, Mrs. Katherine West; Flora, Mrs. Irene Maynard; Mrs. Mary Mannix, Lady Asst. Steward; Mrs. Ida Bowman and Walter Trafton, Executive Committee.

An impressive ceremony was performed at the altar, when Deputy Hennigar presented silver certificates, signifying 25 years membership in the Grange to the following charter members: Past Master Mrs. Marcus J. Gray, Mrs. Bessie Griffin, Miss Katherine Murray, Past Master Marcus J. Gray, Robert Murray and Mrs. Carrie Maddocks were unable to be present but were also entitled to the certificates.

Mrs. Dena Wolfier, who is retiring after twenty years service as secretary, was presented an old-fashioned bouquet with streamers of twenty one-dollar bills, from her many friends.

The new Master, Frank Perry, received a gavel from his officers. A Chop Suey supper was served after the installation.

ARLINGTON HADASSAH

The Arlington Academy of Music was the scene of a large victory party on Tuesday evening, January 4th, when the members of the Arlington Chapter of Hadassah met to celebrate the success of the recent donor luncheon, the largest fund-raising event of the year.

Mrs. Samuel Doctoroff, president, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Myer Berman, chairman of the donor luncheon, gave a complete report. A resume of current events in the new State of Israel was narrated by Mrs. Irving Blumenthal.

In commemoration of the Jewish festival of Chanukah, also known as the Feast of Lights, a dramatic sketch was presented under the direction of Mrs. Eli Reingold. Program chairman, Mrs. Mace Ruderman, introduced the cast which included Mrs. Samuel Channen, vocalist; Mrs. Edward Berman, Mrs. Hyman Garber, Mrs. Max Gerber, Mrs. Louis Doctoroff, Mrs. Harry Karp, Mrs. Isaac Sholkin, Mrs. Morris Zellin, Mrs. Abraham Balanoff, Mrs. Eli Reingold and Mrs. Leon Robbins.

ARLINGTON WOMAN'S CLUB

The regular meeting of the Arlington Woman's Club will be held on Thursday, January 20, at 2 o'clock in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall.

This is American Home Day and Gladys Reed Edling will be the speaker. Her subject is "Practical Ideas for Home Furnishings and Interior Decorations."

Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield, the club president, will preside. The Woman's Club chorus will sing. Figurines will be displayed in the Art Corners.

Recent Weddings, Engagements and Town Social Affairs

EVENING ALLIANCE

The Evening Alliance of the First Parish Church (Unitarian) met for Social Service on Wednesday evening, January 5, at the home of its program chairman, Mrs. Robert Young, 54 Academy street. Miss Gertrude Redmond, president, opened this meeting informally and Mrs. Young introduced Mrs. Osgood of Lexington. Director of the General Alliance in Boston, who had been invited to give some suggestions on Social Service work and other Alliance work for the new year.

Mrs. Osgood outlined what had been accomplished in other Alliance branches on Social Service work. She included such items as local town projects, making garments for the Unitarian Service Committee in New York to be sent abroad, scrapbooks on definite subjects to be sent to mental hospitals and assistance to diabetic clinics in this country, as well as clothing for orphans in France.

Mrs. Young then invited all to partake of refreshments in her candlelit dining room where she was assisted in pouring by Mrs. Isabel Pettingill and Miss Gertrude Redmond.

—Lt. Colonel Horace E. Frink, Jr., of Waltham, a graduate of Arlington High School, has assumed command of Clinton County Air Force Base at Wilmington, Ohio.

Recent Bride

MRS. EDWIN M. HIGGS, II
(Mary Jane McLaren)

Town Topic

—Irving Brown, a freshman at the State University of Iowa from Arlington, has been named in the cast of "Beggar on Horseback," which will be produced at the University Theatre.

GUNNING --- HANSEN

Miss Joan Therese Gunning of 19 Orchard terrace, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gunning was married on the afternoon of January 1 in St. Agnes' Rectory to Charles C. Hansen, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hansen of Forrest Park, Ill., the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Msgr. Matthew J. Flaherty.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Paul J. Muller of Astoria, L. I., while the bridesmaid was Mrs. Lorraine G. Grail of Winchester, a cousin of the bride. The best man was Henry J. Giesler of Tuckahoe, N. Y., and the ushers were John A. Pierce and Paul G. Selley, both of Arlington.

Following a reception at the Vendome Hotel, Boston, the couple left for a honeymoon in Florida and Louisiana. They will live in Forrest Park.

Mrs. Hansen attended Lasell Junior College and Regis College, and the bridegroom is a graduate of Cornell and MIT.

Engaged

MISS PRISCILLA ALLEN
Mr. and Mrs. George P. Allen of 22 Crescent Hill avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Priscilla Allen, to Theodore S. Cayer, son of Mrs. Charles Cayer of Wakefield.

Miss Allen is a graduate of the Mount Auburn Hospital School of Nursing and is at present employed at the New England Deaconess Hospital. Mr. Cayer was a Navy V12 trainee at Harvard during World War II and saw service in the Alaskan Theater of Operations.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Life" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, January 16. Golden Text: "Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you" (John 6:27).

Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include: "And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son" (1 John 5:11). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:

"The scientific unity which exists between God and man must be wrought out in life-practice, and God's will must be universally done. . . . The days of our pilgrimage will multiply instead of diminish when God's kingdom comes on earth; for the true way leads to life instead of to death, and earthly experience discloses the finity of error and the infinite capacities of Truth, in which God gives man dominion over all the earth" (p. 202).

COMET CLUB NEWS

The Comet Club of Calvary Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. H. Lee Shumway, 24 Allen street, January 4, with an attendance of 24.

The meeting opened with a devotional program presented under the leadership of Mrs. George A. Hill, Jr. A consecration service followed, with each member participating. The singing of "Have Thine Own Way Lord" and "The Old Rugged Cross," also a final prayer, brought the devotions to a conclusion. Mrs. George Burke accompanied at the piano.

Miss Edith Starkey presided at the business meeting. The next meeting is a covered dish supper, January 18, at the home of Miss Dorothy Hall, 39 Harlow street, with Miss Ruth G. Philpott as chairman.

MENOTOMY CHAPTER, D.A.R.

Menotomy Chapter, D. A. R., will hold an open meeting for all civic and patriotic organizations of Arlington on Tuesday, January 18, at 2 p. m. in the Robbins Library Hall, when the National Defense committee presents Rev. Edward B. Wilcox of Lynn on "Imperial Communism." The meeting is in charge of Mrs. Stanley R. Kingman, chairman, and Mrs. John S. Sampson, Regent, will preside.

Town Topic

—Richard Bean, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bean of 145 Charlton street, and Charles Boyd, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd of 21 Ashland street, were among the local young people who attended the get-together of the Greater Boston International Friendship League, held last month at New England Mutual Hall. Richard Bean was one of those interviewed by the WCOP announcer, and he broadcast by short wave to his pen-pals in England and Scotland.

Roy - Wheeler

Mr. and Mrs. Gustave P. Roy of Arlington announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pauline Madeline Roy, to C. Frederick Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Wheeler of South Amboy, N. J.

Miss Roy is a graduate of Arlington High School and the Massachusetts General Hospital School of Nursing, Boston, and is now employed as a staff nurse at Memorial Hospital, Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Mr. Wheeler is a graduate of Hoffman High School, South Amboy, N. J., Syracuse University, and the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, Cambridge, and is working as sales promotion manager with a New York concern. The wedding will take place in Arlington on February 12.

Faulkner - McGarry

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Faulkner of 49 Pine street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jean Marilyn Faulkner, to Joseph A. McGarry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McGarry of 67 Mystic street. Both Miss Faulkner and Mr. McGarry are graduates of Arlington High School. Miss Faulkner is a bookkeeper at the S. S. Pierce Company in Brookline, and Mr. McGarry is with Sears Roebuck Company, also in Brookline. No date has been set for the wedding.

Jones - Davies

Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Jones of 128 Appleton street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edith May Jones, to Dudley A. Davies, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Davies of 27a Appleton street. A spring wedding is planned.

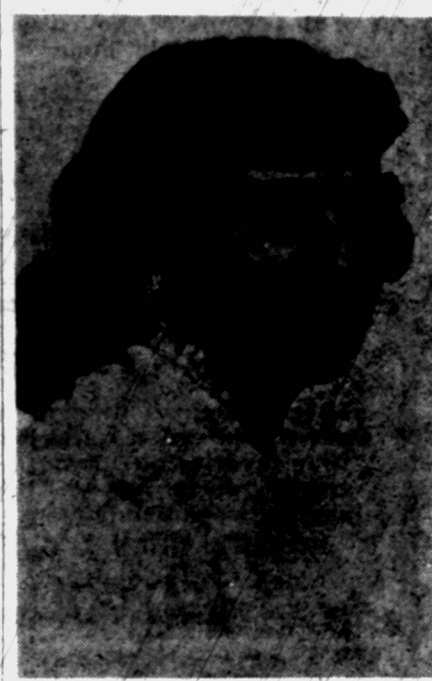

Miss Jones is in the employ of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company in Boston, and Mr. Davies, who served with the Navy in the Pacific, is connected with the Arlington Gas Light Company. Both are graduates of Arlington High School.

Higgins - Graham

Wedding bells will ring for Miss Hazel Higgins, the daughter of Myron Higgins of 73 Henderson street, and Donald Graham of Chicago, next month. The couple will be married at the Harvard Epworth Methodist Church on February 26. Miss Higgins, a graduate of Arlington High School and Leslie College in Cambridge, is teaching at the Abbey-Keller School in Providence, R. I., where her fiancé, who graduated from M. I. T., is connected with the City Planning Board.

—Lt. (jg) Mark N. Newcomb, USN, nephew of B. O. Newborg of 9 Mt. Vernon street, Arlington, of the Naval Air Transport Squadron flying with U. S. Air Force planes in the Berlin airlift, has received a "well done" from the Air Force Commander for his work.

Engaged

MISS PEGGY NAJARIAN

Mr. and Mrs. Archie K. Najarian of 31 Amosden street announce the engagement of their daughter, Peggy, to Anthony Papazian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aris B. Papazian of Watertown.

Reese - Baudreau

The engagement of Miss Lillian Reese to James Baudreau has been announced by Miss Reese's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Reese of 46 Rawson road. Miss Reese, who graduated from Arlington High School, is a freshman at LaSalle Junior College. Mr. Baudreau, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Baudreau of Lexington, is a student at Northeastern University. No date has been set for the wedding.

Meagher - Prendergast

Lt. and Mrs. T. Francis Meagher of 33 Swan place announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Virginia Marie Meagher, to John T. Prendergast, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin S. Prendergast of Lynn.

Miss Meagher graduated from Mt. St. Joseph's Academy in Brighton, and is a secretary in the Department of Public Safety in Boston. Mr. Prendergast is attending Suffolk Law School. No wedding date has been set.

—Lt. (jg) Mark N. Newcomb, USN, nephew of B. O. Newborg of 9 Mt. Vernon street, Arlington, of the Naval Air Transport Squadron flying with U. S. Air Force planes in the Berlin airlift, has received a "well done" from the Air Force Commander for his work.

Stylecraft's -- PRE-IN-VENTORY SALE

Following Our General Policy of Starting Each Season with Fresh Merchandise, We are SLASHING PRICES!

1 1/2 OFF

SAMPLE

Sport Coats

Regular $24.50

$12.25

Pajamas

Regular $3.98

$1.99

SIMPLY DEDUCT 1/2 FROM THE PRICE ON THE ORIGINAL PRICE TAG!

SAMPLE

Broadcloth Shirts

Regular $3.98

$1.99

Only A Few Of The Stylecraft Values Are Listed Here For Other Sensational Reductions . . . Come Early For Best Selections

* Fair Traded Items not included in these reductions.

Stylecraft Men's Shop

The store where women like to buy the things men like to wear.

8 MEDFORD STREET

AR 5-7533

Opp. Regent Theatre

Cheerful flowers for wintry days are appearing in an ever-increasing variety and are adaptable for so many purposes. They're always more than welcome whether in your own home or someone else's. The perfect gift for every occasion.

SCOTT - FLOWERS

(Formerly Ramsdell - Flowers)

14 Pleasant Street

Tel. AR 5-6660

INVENTORY SALE

Prices Slashed to Below Cost!!

Knitting Worsted 4 oz. skein 89c
FLEISHERS
Sweater and Stocking Yarn 2 oz. skein 65c
Sport Yarn 2 oz. ball 59c
RAYON TRIM
Paradise Baby Yarn 2 oz. skein 69c
Sweater Floss 1 oz. ball 29c
BEDFORD
Sweater & Stocking Yarn 2 oz. skein 55c

• ALL YARNS 100% VIRGIN WOOL •
Other Values Not Mentioned Here

Quality Yarns at Reasonable Prices — Bernat, Fleisher, Bedford Yarns

GARBER'S YARN SHOP

350 MASS. AVENUE (Cor. Wyman Ter.) AR 5-6657

HIGGINS
(Continued from Page 1)
nature of the duties required of a Town Clerk. This, together with my education in the law, equips me to execute the exacting duties of this office with efficiency and to carry out the statutory requirements and obligations in a dignified manner and to extend to the people of Arlington the courtesy, co-operation and service to which they are accustomed. If elected to this, the most important office within the gift of the people of the Town, I shall serve with pride, honor and integrity.

—The "Bragg About Boston" show, heard daily over WCOB at 4:45 p. m., will originate its January 13 broadcast in front of the Liggett store at 327 Broadway, in Arlington.

PARMENTER P. T. A.

Mrs. Donald MacJannet of Pleasant street was the featured speaker at the monthly meeting of the Parmenter P.T.A. on January 10.
Her topic "Children of Western Europe—A Personal Report" was well received by the large gathering who listened to her personal observations of the need for aid for the children of Europe.
Parents and teachers donated a quantity of soap which will be sent to French children.
Mrs. John E. Stafford of Egerton road, president of the Arlington Council, was guest of honor.

—Mrs. Warren A. Rutherford of 1 Newcomb street, has returned from a week's visit with Mrs. Vera Rockefeller at Greenwich, Conn.

Town Topics

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Lanefield entertained several friends for dinner New Year's Eve at their spacious home on Valley road. The evening was spent at the card tables.
—Miss Anyan, an Nostrum, and Miss Ann Kilmer of Toronto, Canada, were the guests for the holiday week-end of John Ring and Mr. and Mrs. W. Parker Wood at their home at 74 Appleton st. Many dinner parties were given in their honor by college and town friends of Mr. Ring.
—I. Wayne Keller, Assistant Controller of the Armstrong Cork Co., and an authority on cost control, will address the members of the Boston Chapter, National Association of Cost Accountants, at their next meeting on Jan. 15 at the Boston City Club. Among Arlington residents who will attend this meeting are Arthur G. Flaherty of 42 High Hall road, and Sten G. Nyberg of 225 Waverly street.
—A complete Nurse's Aide training course, which is preparation for any illness or accident that may occur, will be given without charge to any Arlington woman who in turn will plan to spend four hours a week during the next year as a Red Cross volunteer. Miss Dorothy Bartol, chairman of the Nurse's Aide service of the Boston Metropolitan Chapter, announced today. A course for evening aids will start Monday, Jan. 24, and women who can fill important day-time positions may enter classes beginning Monday, Feb. 14. Miss Bartol said. —At the final business sessions of the Society for Strabismus (crossed eyes) Research, concluding its work in Chicago, Dr. Donald Horley of Arlington was elected a vice president.

Coming Events

Menotomy Chapter, D.A.R., open meeting, Jan. 18, at 2 p. m., Robbins Library Hall.
Arlington Woman's Club, Jan. 20, 2 p. m., Town Hall.
Polio Benefit performance, Jan. 19, at 8 p. m., Town Hall.
Catholic Woman's Club bi-weekly matinee bridge-whist, Jan. 18, 2 p. m., Legion Hall.
Laymen's League, First Parish Church, Jan. 16, 6:30 p. m., Reuben Markham, speaker.
Evening Alliance, First Parish Church, Jan. 19, 8 p. m., Mrs. Grace B. Mitchell, speaker.
Women's Fellowship of First Baptist Church, Jan. 17, 8 p. m.
Florence Crittenton League, Jan. 19, 2:30 p. m., First Parish Church (Unitarian).

A Talk on Books

The Varia Study Club held its first meeting of the New Year on Monday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. W. Parker Wood, 74 Appleton street. Twenty-three members listened to the reviews of current books by Miss Mary Mackdon of Winchester. Miss Mackdon, who is the head of the foreign language department in the Winchester schools, reviewed a baker's dozen of the year's better books, dividing her selections into three groups, or the three "e's" as she called them—books read for education, escape and enjoyment. Her presentation was unusual and fascinating.
The usual social period following the talk was made particularly enjoyable by the refreshments concocted by the assisting hostesses, Mrs. Curtis Pinkham, Mrs. Amelia C. Eagan, and Mrs. A. Henry Ottoson.

—A New Year's Eve party at the Ed Mansfield's, on Bartlett avenue, included the Hayward Houghtons, Bob Wassons, Warner Clifford, Gordon Gotts and Lucius Packards.

—Mrs. Albert H. Perkins of 7 Monadnock road, has the sympathy of her friends in the recent loss of her sister, Mrs. Leon H. Dwight, of Worcester. Mrs. Dwight formerly resided here with Mrs. Perkins.

Chamber May Ask Town to Share in Future Xmas Lighting

Directors of the Arlington Chamber of Commerce have discussed the possibility of increasing the Christmas lighting in the future, covering both East Arlington and Arlington Heights as well as the Center.

At the same meeting the directors took occasion to congratulate the town's merchants who cooperated in making the last Christmas lighting in the Center successful. They also expressed their appreciation to the Selectmen and other town officials for the lighting in Town Hall, the Robbins Library, the fire station and the community Christmas Tree.

It was suggested at the meeting that the town might consider defraying the cost of installing a string of lights along Massachusetts avenue, on the Town Hall side, from Pleasant to Academy street. As there are no stores on this side of Massachusetts avenue, no effort has been made to illuminate it, lights having been installed during the Christmas season only in front of stores that pay the cost. To extend the lighting on the Town Hall side from Pleasant street would cost the town approximately $500 the first season, it was said.

Berkeley Cue, chairman of the Chamber's lighting committee; Charles B. Perham and Harold N. Anderson were appointed a committee to study the matter and to consider inserting an article in the Town Meeting warrant for an appropriation.

The next dinner meeting of the Chamber will be held the third week in February when it is expected that the Arlington Woman's Club chorus will furnish the entertainment.

Louis Stella of 799 Massachusetts avenue has been elected a member of the Chamber.

Arlington B. C. Nips Revere All-Stars

A well-drilled and well-coached Arlington B. C. Senior Basketball Team eked out a 56-55 win over the previously undefeated Revere All-Stars Sunday afternoon at Revere, when "Bulldog" O'Neill looped one of his specialties, a hook shot from the right hand corner, with only six seconds remaining.

The All-Stars, featuring local college athletes, held a commanding lead at the three-quarter mark, but the locals proved their right to being billed as Arlington's Town Champs, when they doggedly fought back to tie the score and then go on to win.

Outstanding for the club were Hanlon and Keohane as individual high scorers, and "Big" Bill Casey, a bulwark on defense. Although he was opposed by "Iru" Heller, 230-lb. giant of B. U. football fame, the summary:

Arlington	Fls	Pts
Keohane	6	0 12
Cooper	0	1 1
Stevens	4	2 10
Canty	1	0 2
Guarnota	3	0 6
O'Neill	2	0 4
Hanlon	5	3 13
Shea	0	1 1
Ling	0	1 1
Casey	2	0 4
Egan	1	0 2
Totals	24	8 56

Revere	Fls	Pts
Harrington	6	2 14
Dunn	2	1 5
Heller	2	0 4
O'Brien	5	1 11
Kenny	1	1 3
Daley	4	0 8
Olson	3	0 6
Murphy	1	2 4
Totals	24	7 55

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

The Women's Fellowship of the First Baptist Church will hold its January meeting on Monday, Jan. 17, at 8 p. m. This is to be the Past Presidents Night with a few words of greeting from each of the presidents of the organization. This includes Mrs. Grady D. Feagan, its first president; Mrs. L. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Malcolm B. Griffin, Miss Ruth Leitch, Mrs. J. Clark Wyman and Mrs. Frederick Ennis.

In addition to this, there will be a Rug and Quilt Making exhibition. All those who have rugs and/or quilts which they would like to put on display, should contact Mrs. Myrtle Low for rugs and Mrs. Edna Newgent for the quilts.

Devotions will be led by Mrs. Francis Ennis and Miss Laura Jean Road will be the soloist.

HARDY P. T. A.

The Hardy P. T. A. met on Tuesday evening, Jan. 11. This was the annual Fathers' Night program with James Sumner, Director of the Arlington Boys' Club, the speaker. He told of the work being done for Arlington's boys through the activities of the club. The entertainment for the evening was provided by two of the boys from the club. Bill Kennedy played selections on the accordion and Gene Lawlor did one of his own boogie woogie arrangements on the piano.

Miss Thompson's class took the first award for attendance and Miss Headley's class took second place. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Beatrice Rogers and her committee.

Miss Katherine Gregory, supervisor of elementary schools, was the guest of the association and spoke briefly.

It costs the U. S. government an average of $996 to dress, equip and maintain each draftee now, whereas early in World War II the average cost of a year's such maintenance was $256.

Farmers are beginning to look to business to set its house in order and to assume its responsibilities to the public as well as to expect Organized Labor to do its part.

St. Agnes' School Wins Quizdown

Saint Agnes' School came within 10 points of the Boston Globe WCOB Quizdown Hall of Fame Saturday, when they scored 1190 out of a possible 1200 to defeat Saint Patrick's School of Watertown. The Saint Patrick Quizdowners scored 950 points—ordinarily a good winning score.

The program was recorded Saturday morning in Saint Agnes' School auditorium and was broadcast Saturday evening over WCOB. Grace Coppin of New York, now rehearsing for the next production of the Boston Repertory Association at the Copley Theatre, thrilled the audience as guest speaker.

Judges for the Quizdown were Sister Eleanor of Rosary Academy, Watertown, and Sister Stella Vincent of St. Paul's School, Cambridge.

Saint Agnes' School will receive a 19-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia and Saint Patrick's will be presented with a large framed Rand McNally Standard Map of the United States. Each contestant received a fountain pen. Mechanical pencil sets will be sent to the pupils whose questions were used on Saturday's quizdown.

The winners from Saint Agnes' were John Maguire and Henry Egan, Grade 4; Timothy Burns and Mary Burke, Grade 5; Joseph Sayers and Paul Broughton, Grade 6.

—James M. Costello of 72 Margaret street was drawn by the Board of Selectmen at its meeting Monday night to serve on the grand jury, Cambridge, beginning February 7.

—Word has been received from Los Angeles that William F. Davis, Jr., a native of Arlington and a former Town Moderator, has been appointed member of the investment firm of Adams, Duque & Hazeltine of Los Angeles. Mr. Davis was formerly vice president and general manager of the Rexall Drug Co.

PERCY ST. CLAIR MORINE
Percy St. Clair Morine, 72, of 63 Cleveland street, a resident of Arlington for the past 35 years, passed away Monday. Private funeral services were held Wednesday and interment was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Captain Morine, a native of Halifax, N.S., was a master in sail and followed the sea for many years. His travels took him to most of the ports in both hemispheres. He had rounded both the Cape of Good Hope and Cape Horn on round the world trips under sail. After a short term as paymaster on one of the first ships of the Canadian Naval forces, he was purser for some years with the Pickford & Black line of mail boats, running between Canadian & British West Indies Ports. For the last 26 years he had been with the N. E. Coal & Coke Company.

Mr. Morine is survived by his wife, Mrs. Carrie E. Morine; a son, John P. Morine; a daughter, Mrs. James P. Snow; and four grandchildren.

Town Topics
—Mrs. Svante Lindskog of Longfellow road has the sympathy of her friends in the death last week of her father, Alfred Denale, in Woburn.

—The Annual Get-Together of the Massachusetts Teachers Federation will be held at the Boston City Club, 14 Somerset st., Boston, tomorrow at 6 p. m. The members of the Board of Directors include Roger L. Warner of Arlington.

—Figured on its proportion of the national income, Massachusetts' share of the proposed $41,848,000,000 federal budget for 1950 submitted to Congress on Monday would be $1,523,621,000, the Massachusetts Federation of Taxpayers announced last night.

FREE TRIAL IN YOUR CAR!
GANE 2 MI. PER GAL. $750 EACH
Air Flow Needles
Holes for Air Flow
(Patent Pending)

WITH AIR FILTER CAP
New, quickly installed carburetor improvement. Replaces present ordinary idling adjustment screw in YOUR carburetor to improve Fuel Air Mixture to add MORE miles. Over 1/4 million now in use.

USERS REPORT
Easier Winter Starting; Up to 4 MORE miles per gallon. Smoother Motor. Slower Idling. Faster Pick-up. BUT YOU TEST GANES IN YOUR OWN CAR.

SEND NO MONEY
This is an honest, clean "Try-Before-You-Buy" FREE TRIAL OFFER. Just send us by post-card, or letter, your Name and Address, and the Make-Model-Color or Truck you are driving. GANE NEEDLES (8 cylinder motors take 2) will be promptly sent you, with complete information. Your Service Station, where you regularly buy your Gas, will quickly make the Easy, Simple Gane Installation.

USE GANES 10-DAYS
Note immediate improved motor performance; Easier Winter Starting; Elimination of Loading; Faster Pick-up. Check your increased Gas mileage, too, which should average 2, or more extra miles per gallon. At end of 10 Days, send us only $1.50 per Gane Needle in currency, check or stamps, or return the Needles. No questions asked.

Mail Request To-day for Trial Needle.

TRI-GLO, INC.
116 Newbury St.
Boston

Town Talk

—L. Harold DeWolf, Professor of Philosophy at Boston University School of Theology, will be the guest preacher at the Arlington Hts. Methodist Church this coming Sunday in the absence of Rev. Ronald W. Ober, the minister, who is recovering from an accident suffered several days ago.

—The reason for the tearing up of Massachusetts avenue at Mystic street is to install telephone lines.

—Mrs. William E. Hardy spent the week-end at Hollis, N. H., the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hardy.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Boothby of Chelmsford entertained several friends over the New Year at their summer home in Kennebunkport, Maine. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. Parker Wood of Appleton street, Mr. and Mrs. Dow Pickering of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Godwin of Winchester and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brooks of Chelmsford. All are active members of the Friends of the Drama.

—Miss Pauline Anafantis of Paul Revere road spent last week-end in New York visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Thompson (Dorothy Anafantis). The Thompsons leave shortly for three years in England, where Mr. Thompson is being transferred to the London office of Pan American World Airways.

—Seven students from Bouve-Boston School of Physical Education, which is affiliated with Tufts College, have resumed their practice teaching in the Arlington schools. Miss Muriel Brock of Northford, Conn., and Miss Gill Johnston of Ocasawana, N. Y., are teaching in the Arlington elementary schools; Miss Annette Krikorian of Watertown; Miss Ursula FitzGerald of Malden; Miss Priscilla Devine of Swampscott; Miss Nancy Birch of Belmont; and Miss Ann Chesbro of Providence, R. I., at the Arlington High School.

The familiar cupola on railroad cabooses was "invented" by a Chicago and North Western brakeman who discovered the excellence of the view when he stuck his head through a hole in the roof of a damaged caboose.

PAINT WASHED
CELLARS AND ATTICS
CLEANED
Call AR 5-3822-R
N. K. WERNER

NOW IS THE TIME TO REPAIR YOUR SCREENS
Call AR 5-3822-R
N. K. WERNER

H. A. TENNEY
INSURANCE — ALL KINDS
107 MASS. AVE.
Tel. AR 5-4105

DUDLEY FURNITURE CO. TERRIFIC January BARGAINS!!

3 PIECE Living Room Suite 139.95
5 Year Guarantee
3 PIECE MAPLE Bedroom Suite 59.95
5 PIECE MAPLE Dinette Set 29.95
9x12 FIRST QUALITY Linoleum 4.99
Mattresses 8.88 ANY SIZE
27x54 Maple Crib 9.99
27x54 Crib Mattress 6.99

Open Thurs., Fri., Sat. Even.
Special Budget Plan

DUDLEY FURNITURE CO.
2368 Mass. Ave.
N. Camb. EL 4-6155
(Across from Gas-Barns)

FIRST NATIONAL SUPER MARKETS

NOW . . .
Three Great ARLINGTON First National Super Markets To Serve You!

ARLINGTON CENTRE
808 Mass. Ave.
At the Corner of Bartlett Ave.
Shop Quickly in Modern Comfort at This Brand New Store

Self-Service Meats
Hand Craft Bakery
FREE PARKING FOR 100 CARS

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS
1301 Mass. Ave.
Completely Modern Super Market

Free Auto Parking Space

EAST ARLINGTON
Recently Redecorated
Large New Dairy Display
Complete Food Store

Same Thrifty Prices At All Three Arlington Super Markets

Make These First National Stores Your Food Shopping Headquarters in Arlington

Low Cost Foods FOR STRAINED POCKETBOOKS

FIRST NATIONAL STORES BUTTER

Fresh Brookside LB Creamery Quality ROLL 69c

GOLDEN POT ROAST
4 to 5 lb. beef chuck 1 cup water boiling
4 cloves of garlic 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 cup salt 1 cup chili sauce
1 tsp. pepper Parsley garnish
1 tsp. fat

Rub the meat thoroughly with a bruised clove of garlic. Add salt and pepper. Brown the pot roast slowly on all sides in hot fat melted in a heavy kettle with a tight-fitting lid. Add water, Worcestershire sauce and chili sauce. Cover and simmer gently until meat is tender, about 3 1/2 hours. Turn the pot roast occasionally. Add more water, if necessary, a little at a time. When ready to serve make gravy by thickening liquid with flour blended with a little water (1 tbsp. flour to each 1 cup of liquid). Arrange meat on platter with whole onions, carrots and potatoes. Garnish with parsley. Serves 8 to 10.

Friend's Baked Beans	California Pea, Yellow	16 oz CAN	16c
Prem, Treet or Mor	Just Reduced	12 oz CAN	43c
Evaporated Milk	Carnation, Pet. Borden's, Nestle's	2 TALL CANS	29c
Eveready Cocoa	Nestle's Instant	8 oz PKG	8c
Mayonnaise	Finest Fresh Made	QT JAR	69c
Miracle Whip	SALAD DRESSING	QT JAR	65c
Marvo shortening	Pure Vegetable	3 LB CAN	99c
Orange	Florida Juice	2 16 oz CANS	19c
Grapefruit Juice	Orange and Grapefruit juice	3 16 oz CANS	25c
Blended			25c

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables
ORANGES	Florida Babijuce Sun Ripened	DOZ	29c
GRAPEFRUIT	Juicy Florida Good Size	4 FOR	29c
GRAPES	Fancy Red Emperor	2 LBS	29c
APPLES	Native Baldwin Cooking	3 LBS	29c
COLE SLAW	Fresh Shredded Healthful	CELLO PKG	15c
SALAD BOWL	Fresh Shredded Vegetables	CELLO PKG	19c
CARROTS	Sweet, Young, Healthful	2 BCHS	23c
ONIONS	Fancy Firm Yellow	5 LB BAG	25c
TURNIP	Fancy Yellow P. E. I.	3 LBS	10c

FOODS FOR LOW COST MEALS

Macaroni	White Spray	3 LB PKG	42c
Tomato Puree	Habitant	2 10 oz CANS	15c
Pea Soup	Finest	28 oz CAN	16c
Chipped Beef	Finest	16 oz CAN	43c
A & B Hash	Finest	16 oz CAN	29c
Corned Beef	Finest	16 oz CAN	49c
Codfish	Finest	16 oz CAN	45c
Sunshine	NI-NO CRACKERS	16 oz PKG	0c
Pink Salmon	Finest Solid	7 oz CAN	58c
White Tuna	White Grated	6 oz CAN	49c
Tuna	White Grated	6 oz CAN	39c
Lipton's	HOODLE SOUP	3 ENVS	33c
Lipton's	TOMATO VEGETABLE SOUP	3 ENVS	36c
Fruit Salad	Finest	17 oz CAN	29c
Peaches	Richmond Sliced or Halves	29 oz CAN	27c
Peas	Finest Sliced or Halves	29 oz CAN	29c

CURRIED LAMB SUPREME
Lamb flavor at its best, combined with curry, a hint of garlic, apple and celery!

2 lbs. lean lamb shoulder 4 tbsp. flour
Water to cover 1 tsp. curry powder
4 tbsp. butter 1/2 cup chopped celery
1 clove garlic 1 medium apple, diced
1 large onion 4 cups cooked rice

Cover lamb with water and simmer until tender, about 1 hour. When cool, cut into small cubes, removing all fat. Melt butter and add the chopped garlic and onion. Cook slowly until brown. Add meat broth and enough water to make 4 cups. Mix flour and a small amount of water to make a smooth paste. Add and cook until smooth. Add curry powder, chopped celery and apple. Cook for about 10 minutes. Combine with diced, cooked lamb. Cook slowly for about 20 minutes, until the sauce is well blended. Serve with hot, steamed rice. Serves 6 to 8.

FIRST NATIONAL STORES BUTTER

Fresh Brookside LB Creamery Quality ROLL 69c

Meat Prices Have Dropped Up to 34c Per Pound Since Last Sept. 21st at First National

Heavy Western Steer Foot - Tender, Juicy, Lean Roast

RIB ROAST	LB	59c
Broilers or Fryers - Plump, Tender, Meaty
Chickens	LB	49c
Oven or Pot Roast - Bone In
Chuck Roast	LB	55c
Heavy Western Steer Neck - N. Y. Sirloin or Porterhouse	LB	79c
Fresh Ground Lean Meat
Hamburg	LB	55c
Lean Sugar Cured
Sliced Bacon	LB	65c
Boned and Rolled If Desired
Lamb Fores	LB	43c
Mild Sugar Cured - Either End
Cooked Hams	LB	65c
Mild Sugar Cured
Smo' ed Shoulders	LB	43c
COD STEAK	Fancy Clear Meat	LB 35c
MACKEREL	Fancy Case	LB 19c
HADDOCK	Ocean Fresh	LB 21c
OYSTERS	Fresh Plump Stewing	PT 69c

EROOKSIDE NATIVE FRESH EGGS
From Nearby Farms - Grade A
LGE SIZE DOZ 65c
MED SIZE DOZ 61c

EVANGELINE MILK
Accepted by the American Medical Association
Vitamin D Added 3 TALL CANS 41c

CLOVERDALE MARGARINE
Enriched With Vitamin A LB PKG 27c

RECENTLY REDUCED 1

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR	25 LB BAG	$2.15
PILLSBURY'S FLOUR	25 LB BAG	$2.15
FINAST BREAD OR PASTRY FLOUR	25 LB BAG	$1.69
HIGHLY REFINED LARD	LB	23c

All Prices Effective at First National Self-Service Super Markets in This Vicinity Subject to Market Changes

FIRST NATIONAL STORES